guards who were held as hostages. Prisoners numbering 116 took over the building, arrow at upper right, and fought off guards until the uprising was quelled. (AP Wirephoto)

16-Hour Riot Is Ended at Prison

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP)—Sixteen hours of rioting in the federal prison system's big medical center here left a backwash of tin cans marked, "Masks, Gas M-9." "That gas sure did the trick," said Leonard Appleby, 55.

For 19 years Appleby has been a guard at the big U.S. prison hospital, where 60 per cent of the 1,000 prisoners are insane criminals. Monday night at 9:55 o'clock, Appleby was sitting in a small office censoring the prisoners' mail.

"Earl Taylor (a prisoner) charged in with a knife in his hand," Appleby said. "Before I could realize what was up he had that knife under my throat. 'You make one move and I'll kill you right here,' Taylor said. 'Be quiet.'"

Taken as Hostages

In the next few minutes, Taylor and 105 other prisoners in the "10 North" section of the hospital took Appleby and four other guards as hostages.

"All was pretty quiet," Appleby said. "The inmates tore open offices and medical chests and loaded up on tranquilizers and phenobarbital—that is, all except the leaders. They did not settle down."

Leaders Identified

The riot leaders were identified as Taylor, 31, serving 9 years for violating the federal firearms act, assault, escape and theft; Carl Roberts, 19, serving 4½ years for car theft, and Bryan D. Reed, 24, a military prisoner serving life for murder.

"We didn't really get scared until after Warden (Russell O.) Settle came over and talked to the men. He asked them what they wanted and no one knew. Taylor had no plan at all. The whole thing was senseless. He never had any real terms."

Stretch Out Time

"They just set out to stretch out the thing as long as they could. It made no difference to them if anybody survived."

The 106 prisoners in the three buildings of the "10 North" unit include homosexuals and "aggressive personalities."

They tore up furniture, medical cabinets and anything they could put their hands on to form barricades.

Warden Settle, Warden S. Chet Taylor from the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan., Myrl E. Alexander, assistant director of the Federal Bureau of Prisons from Washington, and Noah Alldredge, captain of guards at the hospital, worked out a plan of attack.

They decided, in Alldredge's words, that the hostages "were expendable." In addition to Appleby, there were guards Robert B. Rosendahl, 38; William L. Fitch, 45; Charles R. Allen, 48; and Melvin C. Jung, 57.

100 Guards Move In

They borrowed 100 gas masks from the Army at Ft. Leonard Wood.

One hundred picked men from hospital and Leavenworth guards put on the masks and armed themselves with clubs made of

FRED H. DUBOIS

County Officer To Head Scout's Finance Campaign

The appointment of Fred H. DuBois of New Paltz as general chairman of the Rip Van Winkle Council, Boy Scouts of America annual fund campaign was announced recently by Council President Elwood Hitchcock.

As general chairman of the Boy Scout campaign which will start October 20, DuBois will give overall leadership to all three phases of the campaign, leadership gifts, special gifts and general solicitations.

DuBois, who is Ulster County treasurer, is a long time resident of New Paltz. He is a member of the consistory of New Paltz Dutch Reformed Church, a member of the local school board, New Paltz, Volunteer Fire Department and Lions Club. He has also served the Town of New Paltz as supervisor. For many years DuBois has worked with the youth of the county and his immediate area in the 4-H Club field. He has also been active in various farm organizations and is past master of New Paltz Grange and past president of the Ulster County Extension Service. At present he is director of the Ulster National Farm Loan Association.

The Rip Van Winkle Council Scout campaign will be conducted in all communities in Ulster and Greene Counties exclusive of the Kingston Community Chest area.

All Boy Scout campaigns in Region II (New York, New Jersey) start on October 20 in a coordinated fund raising effort. Purpose of the campaign will be to provide the necessary funds for support of the Scouting program in the Ulster-Greene council area for 1960.

17 Utica Council Members Subpoenaed to Meet Jury

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

UTICA, N. Y. (AP)—All 17 members of Utica's common council were under subpoena to appear today before a special grand jury investigating vice and crime.

The state prosecutor in charge of the investigation will not say why the subpoenas were issued. But reports of misconduct in city government have been popping up ever since the state launched its probe into the Utica situation a year ago.

After the subpoenas were issued Tuesday night, the 14 Democratic members of the council rushed into a meeting behind closed doors. Four lawyers from the city's legal department were summoned.

Earlier in the day, the grand jury resumed hearing testimony after a recess. Grace Gillmore, the city treasurer, was among the witnesses. Officials would not say why she was called.

Last week, Gov. Rockefeller broadened the scope of the state investigation to include tax violations and attempts to obstruct the work of the investigators. The state prosecutor, Robert S. Fischer, had requested the added authority.

Fischer has declined to say what prompted him specifically to ask that he be authorized to prosecute anyone attempting to interfere with the investigation.

But last month, Utica police suspended the license of a taxi driver who testified for the prosecution at a prostitution trial. The license was restored a few hours after the grand jury questioned six city officials about the suspension.

The probe has been under way since former Gov. Averell Harriman ordered the state attorney general last year to investigate Utica and Oneida County. He did this after newspapers disclosed that prostitution and gambling were going on. There were also reports of official corruption.

The grand jury has been in session since last November.

Five Valley Men Are Held in Homes Deals

Five men in the Poughkeepsie-Newburgh area, and one in Manchester, Conn., were arrested in kickback deals involving approximately $522,000 in loans for home improvements, it was reported today by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

H. G. Foster, special agent-in-charge of the FBI, New York office said the kickbacks to home owners ranged from $500 to $1,000.

Arrested according to Foster were:

Peter Pesano, 52, of 34 South Bridge Street, Poughkeepsie.

Jacob Reichin, 48, of 12 Lexington Avenue, Poughkeepsie.

Harry Reichin, 46, of Miller Road, Poughkeepsie.

Louis Reichin, 50, of 19 Muldowney Circle, Poughkeepsie.

Ashton Rowell, 30, of 286 Grand Street, Newburgh.

Charles Aiken, 24, of Route 6, Andover, Conn.

Arraigned Today

Five of these will be arraigned today before U. S. Commissioner John B. Garrity of Poughkeepsie. Aiken will be arraigned today before U. S. Commissioner in Hartford, Conn.

If convicted each faces a maximum sentence of two years imprisonment or a $5,000 fine on each count, or both, Foster said.

Rowell is a former officer of the Orange County Home Improvement Inc., 11 Campbell Street, Newburgh.

Pesano is the owner of Atlas Home Remodeling Co., 213 Union Street, Poughkeepsie.

Jacob Reichin and Harry Reichin are salesmen and Louis Reichin is an owner of Douglas Construction Co., 319 Broadway, Kingston.

U. S. Violations

Charles Aiken is a former salesman for Alco Construction Co., 116 Union Street, Poughkeepsie.

These individuals are charged in complaints filed by the FBI with violations of title 18, section 1010, U. S. Code in that they aided, abetted, counseled, induced and procured the submission of false applications for home improvement loans insured by the Federal Housing Authority, Foster said.

The FBI investigation was instituted as a result of information furnished by the Dutchess County Sheriff's Office, Poughkeepsie, alleging that kickbacks and rebates were reportedly being made by officers and salesmen of home improvement companies to induce the home owners to submit fraudulent FHA title I loan applications. Foster declared.

The Poughkeepsie, Newburgh, Beacon, and Kingston Police Departments all furnished complete cooperation throughout this investigation.

Investigation revealed that the alleged kick-back money was used by home owners to purchase automobiles, pay off debts, taxes and finance companies.

Fronzizi Defies Rojas Orders to Quit Office

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Rear Adm. Isaac Rojas, a hero of the revolt that toppled Juan Peron, issued a defiant call early today for the resignation of President Arturo Fronzizi. The government shot back that Fronzizi will not quit.

Rojas sounded a virtual call to arms to the country's increasingly rebellious armed forces.

Branding the 14-month-old Fronzizi administration "tarnished and illegitimate," Rojas warned the president he faces a military ouster.

Film Star Excellent Following Operation

NEW YORK (AP)—Film star Marilyn Monroe was reported in excellent condition today after an operation. She is expected to leave the hospital Friday.

The nature of the operation was not disclosed. The surgeon was a gynecologist, Dr. Mortimer Rodgers.

He said "there was no evidence of pregnancy. She had not been feeling well for a couple of days prior to coming in here."

Her husband, playwright Arthur Miller, said the surgery was of a corrective nature. Miller and Marilyn both have expressed a desire to have children. She has had two miscarriages since their marriage.

Two Naval Vessels Coming on July 4

Two Atlantic Fleet naval vessels will visit Kingston as part of the city's Independence Day ceremonies, it was announced today.

The vessels—a submarine and a small minesweeper—will dock Friday afternoon, July 3.

Chief Leo Boland of the U. S. Navy Recruiting Office said today that the submarine, USS Cavalla, will definitely moor at the Newcombe Oil dock on Kingston Point. It is possible that the minesweeper, Sagacity, will also dock here.

Boland, a former member of the crew of the Cavalla, said the submarine has been converted into an SSK type (Submarine Killer)—an "anti-submarine submarine," as he puts it.

Both vessels will remain here Saturday and Sunday, July 4 and 5, and will be open for inspection. The times will be announced.

The minesweeper has a complement of four officers and 60 men, the submarine nine officers and 90 men.

Talks Are To Resume July 13th

Solid Backing May Change Red Policy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Christian A. Herter's stand against yielding the freedom of West Berlin found overwhelming support in Congress today.

U. S. diplomats hoped the evidence of solid congressional backing in both parties would help impress in Communist minds the need for a change in Moscow's policy if there is ever to be a peaceful solution to the German crisis.

Reports on Conference

Herter spoke grimly Tuesday night in reporting to the American people on the six weeks of deadlock at the Geneva foreign ministers conference on Germany. The negotiations recessed last Saturday until July 13.

In a 15-minute radio-TV speech, the American foreign affairs chief called on the Soviets to abandon their drive "to add more than two million free West Berliners to the captive peoples of Eastern Europe."

Critical Question

"This is the critical question," he said. "If the Soviets do not hold to this annexationist design, we should be able to reach agreements on Berlin consistent with the honor and interest of all our countries."

The Reds touched off the crisis by demanding an end to the post-war Allied occupation of West Berlin. Britain, France and the United States refused to pull out of the Communist-encircled city without an arrangement for its freedom. The Soviets rejected all Western offers.

Herter linked West Berlin's freedom to America's own. "When their freedom is diminished, our freedom is inevitably diminished," he said.

He pictured Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko as uttering threats and "Communist upside-down talk," aided by the "baneful influence" of speechmaking by Premier Nikita Khrushchev in Moscow and elsewhere while the foreign ministers sat at Geneva.

Herter said "some degree of progress" must be made at Geneva in order to warrant a meeting of heads of state afterwards. "Regrettably," he said, "no such progress has as yet been registered at Geneva."

Reports On Gains
On the plus side he reported the negotiations had:

1. Produced worldwide approval of the Western powers' plan for solving the Berlin problem, and the problem of a divided Germany, through a peaceful reunification of Germany with Berlin to be the capital.

2. Demonstrated a high degree of unity among the Allies.

3. Disclosed possible means of specific agreement with the Communists on Berlin.

"I believe that it may be possible to build on these areas of agreement if the Soviet Union is prepared to accept the continued existence of a free West Berlin under Western protection," he said.

Couple Married In Woodstock Are Injured at Utica

The honeymoon of a young couple married Sunday in Woodstock was suddenly terminated Monday morning near Utica when their automobile was in collision with another vehicle as it left a motel.

Woerner Polak, 23, and his bride, the former Evelyn Ruhnman, 23, both ended up in St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Utica. They suffered minor injuries.

Mrs. Polak's father, John Ruhnman, who is proprietor of a barbering establishments in Woodstock, told The Freeman this morning that he plans to drive to Utica Thursday to bring them back.

The couple was married Sunday at Christ Lutheran Church, leaving immediately to drive to California. They spent the night at a motel near Utica.

As Polak was driving out of the motel parking area Monday morning to continue the trip the car was reportedly struck by another vehicle.

Mr. and Mrs. Polak were bruised. (Continued on Page 8, Col. 2)

Driver Accused After Collision

One of the new police patrol cars was damaged in a mishap early today at Albany and Tremper Avenues, and the driver of the other vehicle was booked on an eye-bait and driving charge.

City Judge Aaron E. Klein today put off to July 2 hearing on the charge against Ralph Warren Sommers, 21, of 1908 North Clinton Avenue, Sagamore, Mich., now in the U. S. Navy.

Jean Randall, 18, of 84 Croton Lake Road, Katonah, riding with Sommers, reported lacerations of an eyebrow and eyelid, and was treated at Kingston Hospital.

Officer Wilmont Hall, driver of the patrol car, reported the mishap at 6:04 a. m. Police said damage was extensive on the front of the patrol car, and the other was damaged on its left front.

Sommers was released without bail pending court appearance next month.

The patrol car was one of five placed in service several weeks ago.

Clues Lacking in Search For Boy Missing at Lake

The search for David Raleigh, lost since Saturday, June 13 somewhere in the rugged Catskills was being continued today by about 300 volunteers under direction of Lieutenant Frank Dwyer of the State Police.

Tuesday some 200 volunteers from Syracuse were included in the searching party but no trace of the five-year-old boy was found.

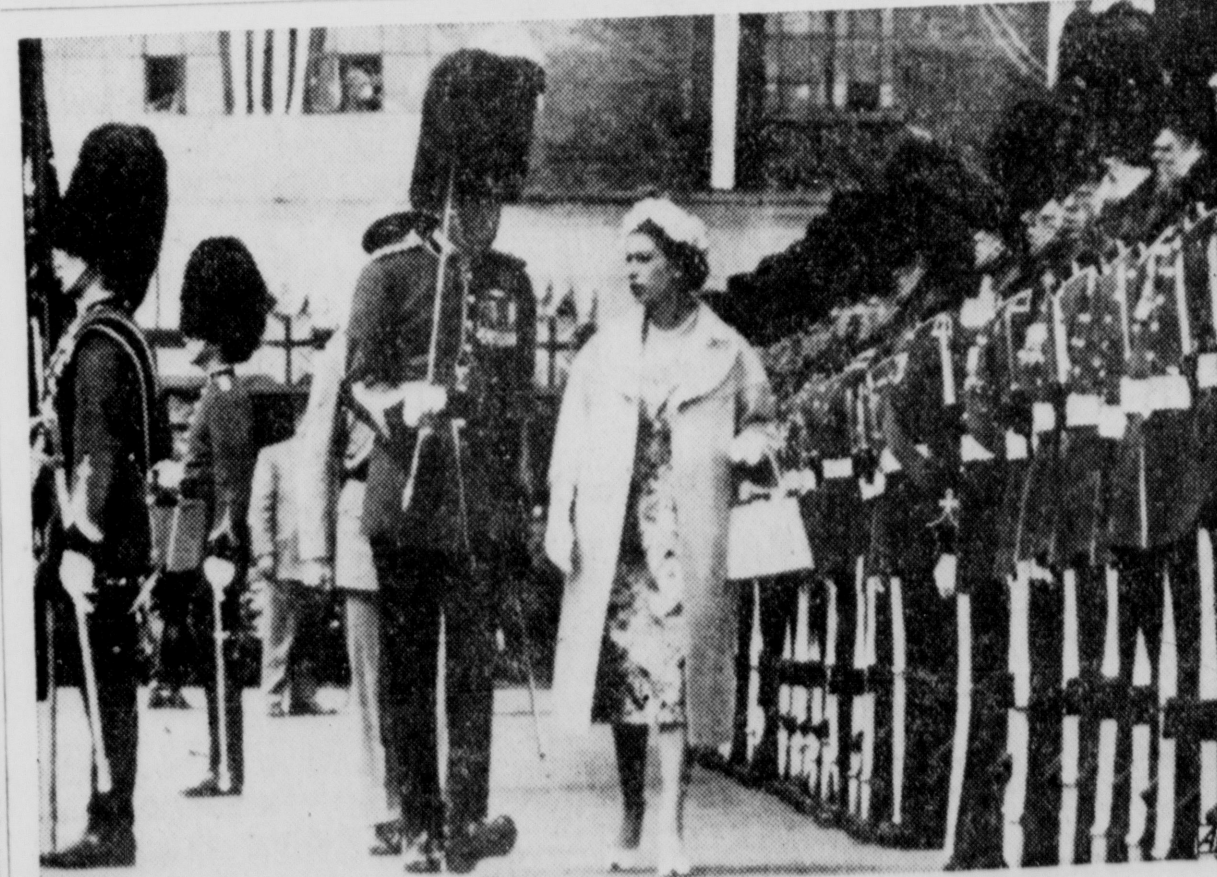

He disappeared from the boat dock when his father and a fishing party sought shelter when a storm blew up. The boy was believed to have gone to the cabin where the family was spending the week end. He never arrived at the cabin and the eleven day search has turned up no clue as to where he may be.

At the site of the search today it was stated about 300 volunteers had arrived at the scene to continue the hunt.

Response to an appeal for volunteers has been very successful but the situation has now become such that additional volunteer groups cannot work with any degree of success and any additional groups which may wish to volunteer are requested to contact their local State Police station and receive a confirmation as to the need before venturing to the scene.

The search will go on, it was stated at Winnisnook today, but the search has been so organized at this point that too large a group cannot be successfully used. However volunteers are still scouring the area and any group desiring to give assistance should contact local State Police.

Slide mountain, on which rugged slopes Winnisnook Lake is located, remains the "focal" point of the search, although other areas are being included.

Senators Deny Action Aimed at California

WASHINGTON (AP)—New York senators, replying to criticism from California, deny that their defense-procurement bill is aimed particularly at taking contracts away from California.

The sole purpose of the legislation, Sen. Kenneth B. Keating (R-NY) said on the Senate floor Tuesday, is to assure maximum competition in awarding of defense contracts.

The New York congressional delegation is attempting to lure more aircraft, missile and electronic contracts to New York State.

California senators charge that references in the bill to areas of labor surplus would put defense procurement on the basis of a "glorified WPA."

Sen. Clair Engle (D-Calif) said it would allow the New York congressional delegation to apply a "massive political hotfoot on the Department of Defense to put contracts into New York State, despite the higher competence of California."

Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R-NY) said his intention was not to cast stones at California industries. "We want to emulate them," he said.

Javits said New York industry has fallen behind because it was unwilling to accept research and development work for the Defense Department, while California did take such contracts.

Now, he said, it is convenient for procurement agencies to follow the easiest course and "deal with the fellow with know-how."

Javits said the provision that, in negotiation of contracts, two or more firms be consulted and each be given the opportunity to match the best offer.

Engle asked the New Yorkers if they thought California got its high proportion of defense business through "skulduggery at the crossroads."

No, said Keating and Javits. But Keating added that he was beginning to wonder because "California's representatives seem so touchy about the legislation and so anxious to preserve the status quo."

E. F. HUTTON

WISDOM FROM THE WEST

The Governor of Montana, Hon. Hugo Aronson, has some down-to-earth things to say about Federal "Aid" to Education.

His Legislature passed a resolution asking Uncle to build schoolhouses for them. The Governor vetoed it.

He said: "Our schools rank along with home and church as a bulwark against the forces that are forever seeking to destroy our Republic."

"Those at the State and local levels are best aware of the quality of education being given our youth."

"Federal Aid will take more and more control away from the State and local levels. The Federal Government always sets up certain standards for States to meet. Each standard is another delegation of power to the Federal Government."

"Federal Aid may sound like a 'get-rich-quick' panacea for all educational problems. However, one must remember that Federal dollars still come from the same taxpayers as other tax dollars. There is no hidden mother lode. It is far cheaper for all concerned to pay taxes at home than it is to send them elsewhere, only to find out later that you have lost control of your educational system and your tax dollars have had a tariff extracted from them."

"If the money is available for Federal Aid, then it is available at the local and State levels. The only Federal Aid needed is for its proponents to support a return of some tax sources to the State and local levels."

Jet Bomber Crash Fatal to 5 Airmen

BURNS, Ore. (AP)—A B52 jet bomber on an experimental low-level flight for the Strategic Air Command crashed in flames Tuesday. The five men aboard were killed.

Witnesses said the eight-jet plane caught fire and was enveloped in flames when it crashed in a remote area 35 miles east of this central Oregon town.

The plane exploded and scattered wreckage and bodies over a mile area.

Boeing Airplane Co. of Seattle built the plane and was conducting tests for the Air Force.

A Boeing spokesman said these civilian employees were aboard the plane: pilot Lewis Moore, 44, Kirkland, Wash.; copilot Joseph Keller, Bellevue, Wash.; navigator Gerald Green, 37, Kent, Wash.; and flight engineers Charles McDaniel, 29, and Neil Johnson, 29, both of Seattle.

Steals Sewer Covers

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Driving has its pitfalls in an industrial area here due to a thief's penchant for profitable scrap-iron. Deputy Sheriff Gene Maxey said 40 iron covers for storm sewers had been filched from streets in the sparsely traveled area, leaving gaping holes in the street.

Free Shakespeare Planned for Summer

NEW YORK (AP)—It's official now. Free Shakespeare will be presented in Central Park this summer.

Gifts totaling $20,000 from two private foundations will make the productions possible.

Robert Moses, park commissioner, ruled in April that there would be no free Shakespeare. The festival must charge admission to finance park improvements needed for an orderly presentation, he maintained. He estimated the cost at $20,000.

Moses held firm. State Supreme Court upheld his view. But the Appellate Division upset the decision last week, holding that Moses' decision was "arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable."

So Moses asked the city to put up the $20,000. The money was donated yesterday by the Edward L. Bernays Foundation and the Louis K. Anspacher Trust.

Multi-Beam System To Detect Planes

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) — A high-power, multi-beam radar system capable of detecting aircraft at significantly higher altitudes and longer ranges than present-day equipment has been delivered to the Air Force.

The General Electric Co. said today the radar, known as FPS-7, feeds several narrow beams into a huge antenna, instead of using the standard single broad-beam method.

GE said the radar was developed jointly by its Heavy Military Electronics Department and the Air Research and Development Command's air development center at nearby Rome.

The system will supply data to the SAGE continental air defense system.

THE FORK IN THE ROAD

It's not uncommon to hear that teen-age delinquents hauled into court on serious offenses laugh and gag their way through the proceedings to show their indifference and their contempt for authority.

The sneers and the smirks, of course, are part of a broad pattern of juvenile behavior which often has deep roots. Some youngsters have never known real authority. Others have learned of it only to defy it.

Tragically, the laugh in the end may very well be on them. If you told them this, they would merely laugh and sneer again. They wouldn't understand what you were saying, nor perhaps even care to understand.

Some, to be sure, will straighten out along the way, grow up to be good citizens, and be forgiven their past, if anyone bothers to remember it in this careless day.

But many are at this very stage of their lives committing themselves to a sad, self-defeating course from which there is no return. They will commit many of the worst crimes of tomorrow, working their depredations on an American society which seems less and less able to defend itself.

Many of them will populate our jails for long years, and others will lead haunted, twisted lives than can bring them no peace and no happiness. As in many cases they come from broken homes, so tomorrow they will produce new broken homes, sowing the seeds of trouble for others.

The society which is not quite safe from them nevertheless will reject them. They will live within its broad confines, but be no part to it.

The defiant grins of the unreconstructed delinquent sitting in a courtroom are really a pitiful sign of ignorance. And the worst of that is his ignorance of the painful, empty, ultimately self-destructive future which may be ahead of him.

His petty triumph, if any would call it even that, is really a step on the road to a great defeat—the near total waste of human life.

The last Communists have been voted out of the Austrian national assembly, thus lowering still further the Reds' opinion of free elections.

THERE ISN'T ANY MORE

Long before her death at the age of nearly 80, Ethel Barrymore had become the rarest of all creatures, a living legend. Her career as an actress had spanned the generations. For years she had been undisputed queen of the American theater.

Though Ethel Barrymore was fully conscious of her place as a member of that royal family of the drama, she may not have particularly relished being regarded as a living legend. She was never one to think only of past glories. Her interest had always been in today's role—and tomorrow's.

She played them all with distinction, with that presence which is the hallmark of the great actress. Her beauty was extraordinary, but it was not her way to use that radiance as a facade; she used it, rather, as another means of reaching her audience and drawing them into the magic circle. Ethel Barrymore has spoken for the last time those words she made famous, "That's all there is, there isn't any more."

Landing a man on the moon, scientists say, poses many difficult problems. And after he has landed, he may consider getting back quite a problem.

CONSPIRACY OF SILENCE

Henry Hazlitt, who writes on business matters for Newsweek, has focused interesting light on the national debt problem by doing a bit of arithmetic. "If," he writes, "someone were to propose that the debt be paid off at an annual rate of one billion dollars a year, he would have to face the fact that at the rate it would take 285

'These Days'

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY
LIFE IN THE BIG CITY

Being a cliff-dweller in New York, I do not own the house in which I live. It is what whereabouts is called a multiple dwelling. At one time such buildings were called tenements; then they went fancy and they were called apartment houses and the rent went fancy too. At any rate, it is our home except in the summer when we go to our own farm where the comforts are different.

I have lived in this building for more than 20 years because it is a comfortable, well-arranged building suitable for our purposes. The neighborhood, of course, changed as neighborhoods do in New York. When we moved here, this was one of the swiftest streets in New York, but the rents were going down because of the Depression. However, there were still pleasant people in the building. And the landlord was an insurance company which had an efficient agent and the building was kept spotless and well-serviced.

Soon the building was sold to some Central Americans who took it as an investment against the day when the great dictator would have to run away. However, the Central Americans did not know much about managing our kind of a house. The brick turned black; the gray-facing took on a yellowish-brown color. The lobby became a shambles. Apparently every time they needed to do something, they had to consult somebody in Central America.

Then a thing happened which, although it was supposed to be secret, somehow got around. Apartments were rented for what they could get, so that some were paying high rents and some were paying very low rents. It was very unfair. And then somebody sold the Central Americans the idea of breaking up a few floors into small flats, some of which were so small as to be almost useless. And they rented out some apartments as boarding houses. The place became awful. And all the time, the Central Americans were weeping that they were losing money and that they wanted more rent. When the rent got high enough, some of the better tenants moved away.

We stayed on, hoping that things would work out. Besides, my dog, Joe, who is named after a celebrated Senator, barks a lot and here he is a popular dog. Elsewhere, who knows? In addition, it will cost a year's rent to move my stuff, including my books and files and records and such accumulations.

Then the Central Americans sold or leased the building—I am not privy to the deal—to an energetic young man who went to work cleaning it up and making it look like new. So the tenants organized a committee to protect themselves from the new landlord. They divided themselves rapidly into two groups: A. Those who were willing to pay a higher rent if they could get improved services; B. Those who were willing to accept the improved services but who refused to pay higher rents.

Meanwhile, the new man washed the front of the building until it looked quite decent. Although I should have preferred less garish art, it is in the lobby that the first parental bad taste manifested itself, because some parents are so progressive that they do not care what their children do to other people's property.

Then there is a row over whether to put in self-service elevators or not. At first, I was against self-service elevators. I feared for children on them. But I have seen how the new types are really good protections, what with a key for each tenant and a closed circuit television to make it possible to see what goes on in an elevator.

Besides, the elevator men tell me that the tips are not what they used to be and nobody wants to work in a house where the tips are lousy, even at Christmas time.

So, I say, let's make a try with the self-service elevator to see how it works out. If a landlord really cleans up a place, he is entitled to a little co-operation. But human nature being what it is, some will say, "The fellow bought the place; it's his headache." Being a conservative, even a reactionary, I think property, if well managed, should bring a profit, like any other business.

A Lot of Water Goes Over The Dam During Human Life

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

If a person took water into the body in the form of beverage or food on the average of only two quarts a day, he or she would consume 12-775 gallons by age 70.

This would float quite a ship, and we take it very much for granted. But the person lost in a desert, the shipwrecked sailor or the aviator downed at sea has a better idea of the importance of this vital element to life.

Without it human beings can stay alive for only a short time.

Water is lost from the body by evaporation from the skin in the form of perspiration and from the lungs with each outward breath. It is lost also in the urine, in the intestinal waste and in the saliva.

An average-sized man carrying on a light occupation in a temperate climate loses about two and a half quarts per day. Of this loss, about one-half quart is in urine, one-half quart from evaporation of the skin and the rest in other ways.

The amount of water lost by way of the skin and lungs depends on the temperature of the atmosphere, the amount of muscular effort and the moisture in the air. With violent exercise, the water loss in perspiration is enormously increased. In hot climates it may be around three quarts a day.

Nearly three-fourths of the body's weight is water. Fatty tissue and bone are lowest in water content.

The liquid part of blood is 92 parts water and the cells contain well over one-half water. The muscles are made up of more than three-fourths water.

The ordinary person under normal conditions has no great trouble with water because if the loss speeds up, it is made up by drinking more.

However, dehydration or excessive loss of water may develop as a result of several symptoms associated with a variety of diseases, such as persistent vomiting, prolonged diarrhea, abnormal sweating or excretion of large quantities of urine.

In such cases, it is frequently necessary to make up the water loss by giving fluids to sick persons by injection or by other routes.

The need of soil, particularly agricultural soil, for plenty of water is well known.

All in all, with the expanding population of the world, increasing attention will have to be given both the quantity of our water supply and the cleanliness of it.

years, or nearly three centuries, to get rid of it."

This places the matter of the national debt in rather startling perspective. It also underscores Hazlitt's point that there is a kind of conspiracy of silence on the question of really taking a big whack at the debt.

Whether there is indeed a conspiracy of silence is a moot point. But it is true that substantial reduction of the national debt is hardly ever discussed. One thing is clear: ignoring the problem won't make it go away.

Hardly Feel the Waves---Yet

Washington News

By PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON — (NEA) — With 5,500 librarians descending on Washington for the first American Library Assn. meeting here in 30 years, the most important news is that the government has to have a new, third Library of Congress building.

To put the matter in the worst possible light, too many people can now read and write. And too many of them are rushing into print with works which librarians feel they must keep.

It isn't just the books that are now crowding L. Quincy Mumford, the congressional librarian, and his staff in what they say is the biggest library in the world. The Russians also claim their Lenin Library in Moscow is biggest but they don't count books the way they do here.

There are 36,900,000 "items" in the Library of Congress now. They fill 36 acres of floor space or 250 miles of shelves. But only 11-400,000 of the items are books. They count anything over 100 pages as a book.

THE OTHER 25,500,000 ITEMS on the shelves, which the new third building will house, include 15,600,000 manuscripts, 2,200,000 maps, 2,000,000 pieces of music and 3,000,000 photographs. In other, under-utilized spaces are sound recordings, motion picture reels, microfilms, broadsides, photostats, posters, and books for the blind.

There are also 160,000 bound volumes of newspapers and periodicals from all over the world. The Library of Congress subscribes to 800 foreign and 700 U. S. newspapers.

It's all these miscellaneous publications that make new library space necessary. One thing that complicates book collecting is that new nations, which never published anything before, are now printing wholesale to educate their illiterate masses and to show their intellectual development.

There were 8,000 what they call "new serial titles" published last year. These are magazines or technical journals and reports published in series, not just one-shot issues. There have been 70,000 new titles of this kind published since 1950.

It used to be that scientists just wrote books on their discoveries. That isn't fast enough now. Their published research papers are important sources of knowledge.

A LOT OF PEOPLE BELIEVE the Library of Congress collects everything published and saves it. It doesn't.

Since 1945, it has collected an average of a million items a year. In 1955 and 1956, it was a million and a half. But last year, new acquisitions were cut to 737,000.

Two copies of copyrighted books have to be filed with the Copyright Office in the Library of Congress. American Book Publishers' Council says there were only 13,462 new titles published in the U. S. last year. This doesn't include reprints or government publications. It counts anything over 65 pages—including paperbacks—a book.

Now copyrighted books are kept for three years. Then, if there is no need for them, they go into library-exchange programs. More and more material on special subjects is being sent to collections like the new National Library of Medicine being built in Bethesda, Md.

THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS is being kept as a broad, general reference collection, but it is big business.

It now employs 2,600 people and costs 14 million dollars a year to operate.

And it's still growing. No definite size has been selected for the third building, but no plans have been drawn. But there's a $75,000 planning authorization before Congress.

The first Library of Congress was burned out when the British sacked Washington in the War of 1812. Thomas Jefferson's library of 2,500 volumes was bought for a new start. The collection was again two-thirds destroyed by a fire in 1867, though the Jefferson books were saved.

The present main building was completed in 1897. The annex was completed in 1939. It was to go for a long time. But now, after 20 years, it's outgrown too.

Pastoral counseling is just as important as preaching in the opinion of most ministers of the United Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., according to a nationwide, three-year survey reported to the denomination's Board of Christian Education meeting here.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

After a long and harmful quietus, popular detestation of communism and the treachery which it implies is beginning to revive. Lyle Wilson, the Washington manager of the United Press International writes that President Eisenhower, himself, is aroused, having written some time ago "I am astonished at the apathy of so many Americans."

With due respect for the President, it must be observed, however, by those who fought communism until the anti-communism came down, that actually was a communist movement stopped by "The White House." The President's remark thus indicates that he did not know what some of his household were doing in this respect.

The opposition was so strong that most of the old war horses pulled up and quit. The fate of Joe McCarthy, Martin Dies, Patrick Thomas, Robert Stripling, Robert Morris, Fulton Lewis, J. B. Matthews and Ben Gitlow discouraged others. Congressman Francis Walter, of Pennsylvania, as chairman of the House committee, has carried on doggedly but with little publicity. Senator Eastland, of Mississippi, as heir to McCarthy's mission, has gone through the motions but with no public response. Judge working a fine young man, quit for office in the Senate to run for office in New Jersey and was swamped in reward for great personal sacrifice McCarthy was crushed by a mysterious campaign unquestionably directed straight from the White House. Lewis O. Douglas, a rich man and a Democrat who had served as ambassador to London, lent his prestige to a filthy rumor against Joe based on more suspicious of an never met the victim. Douglas claimed that McCarthy gave his "victims" no

Red China's Publicity Ban Seen Hiding Her Failures

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Why has the government of Red China just refused a visa to former New York Gov. Harriman to enter that country as a news correspondent? Certainly a visit by so distinguished a personality would have produced writings that would have attracted worldwide attention. The only conclusion that can be reached is that the Communists are afraid of the truth. They cannot afford to have widespread publicity given to their economic failures.

Authoritative information on the true situation inside Red China has been leaking out lately. Perhaps the most significant report comes from former Sen. Alexander H. Smith, of New Jersey, who recently completed a visit to various Asian countries as a special consultant to the Secretary of State. He writes in a personal report to the State Department:

"Our stop in Hong Kong en route to Formosa was most fruitful in giving us an objective picture of mainland China. We maintain a consulate general in Hong Kong with a large well-trained staff which acts as a listening post reflecting the internal Chinese situation. When we arrived there our new consul general, Mr. John Steeves, had not yet arrived, but we were well taken care of by Mr. Thomas Dillon, the acting consul general."

Cites Leadership

"My principal observation from the objective Hong Kong standpoint after talking both to members of our staff and with the governor general are that, so far as our people are concerned, they were unanimous in their feeling that our recognition of Communist China at this time would have an unfortunate impact on free Asia and anti-Communist Chinese. Most of the smaller countries in southeast Asia are looking to United States leadership with regard to Communist recognition. They are aware that after nine years of recognition the British even today are not permitted to have an Ambassador in the China mainland. Furthermore, if we recognize Red China, their terms of recognition would include requiring us to get out of Taiwan and out of the Pacific entirely. In the judgment of our staff, trade with Red China would really be a myth because the Communists are definitely oriented to trading with other members of the Communist bloc and they only trade with the Western nations when it suits their political purpose to do so. Their program is to increase their own economic potential and this is done at the sacrifice and cost of the individual 'slaves' of the ruthless Communist control.

"Our staff people feel that the claims of the Chinese Communists of a real economic 'leap forward' are very much overrated. The stepped-up economic drive and the establishment of the new drastic commune system are simply attempts to get the people to work harder for the benefit of the Communist objectives, and not to raise living standards. Their claims of increased economic and agricultural production are vastly inflated. They claim a labor shortage but this is due to the fact that they are using the masses by compulsory slave driving. Our staff feels that the people are made to work so hard that a backfire may ultimately set in. In spite of these difficulties, however, substantial economic progress may be expected."

Notes Revolt in Tibet

Sen. Smith comments also on the sensational effects of the revolution in Tibet on Asian peoples. He adds:

"Certainly the events during the last year have justified the Eisenhower-Dulles policy of non-recognition of Red China and of opposing the entry of Red China in the United Nations. Furthermore, these events have justified the United States position in supporting the Nationalist government and in making clear our attitude with regard to the defense of Formosa and the off-shore islands."

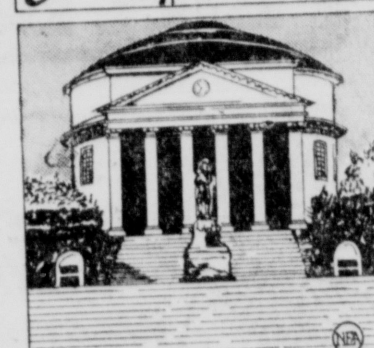

"Our long-range policy looking forward to permanent world peace must be a policy in support of an ultimately free China—the key to a free Asia. As I have stated before, this does not suggest war as a means to accomplish these objectives. But with the passing events, the people of the mainland of China are beginning to see the hideous threat of communism and the danger of the domination of Asia and the world by communism. There is evidence that their traditions and cultures and their spiritual inheritance are turning their minds toward the free world—and, in time, and without a shooting war, we may see them once more lined up with the forces of freedom." (Reproduction Rights Reserved) about prostitution. West Point advised him to lecture cadets on the government reservation at the climax of his war on McCarthy's war on Reds in the Pentagon itself.

Lucille Ball, now one of our rich women, joined the party to please her dear old grandpa. Dalton Trumbo's book "Johnny Got His Gun" is reissued amid acclaim although Trumbo got one year for contempt of the House committee. Meanwhile he got a Hollywood "Oscar" under a transparent pseudonym.

In an administration marked by acrimonious reappraisal, President Eisenhower could destroy this apathy by a patriotic gentleman's apology to Joe's widow. (Copyright, 1959, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Matter of FACT

When Thomas Jefferson completed his second term as president in 1809, he began one of the most ambitious efforts of his life: the establishment of a university which would live up to his ideals. The University of Virginia resulted from his efforts, but he was so short of money that he had to sell his fine library to Congress. Later a fine public subscription was taken for his benefit. He died July 4, 1826, almost penniless.

OTHER LOW-PRICED CARS WOULDN'T BE LOW PRICED IF THEY HAD WHAT CHEVY HAS!

Anyone who's shopped around knows the leading low-priced three are only a few dollars apart on cost. But when you start figuring what you get for your money Chevy widens the gap in a hurry. Look over the accompanying list of Chevrolet exclusives, then make a conservative estimate of how much they're worth to you. We'll leave it to your arithmetic. How long would the other two be in the low-price field if they gave you what Chevy does?

NO WONDER MORE PEOPLE ARE BUYING CHEVROLETS IN 1959 THAN ANY OTHER CAR!

Impala Convertible—unmistakably modern.

SAFETY PLATE GLASS IN EVERY WINDOW

How much is this eye-comfort worth to you? Chevrolet's the only low-priced car that gives you Safety Plate Glass—not just Safety Glass—all around. And you get more visibility area in a Chevy, too, whether you pick a sedan, hardtop or convertible.

UNMISTAKABLY MODERN DESIGN

Chevy's got the only really fresh style in its field. We'll leave it to your own good taste to put a price tag on this (plus the extra allowance you can expect at trade-in time).

OVERHEAD-CURVED WINDSHIELD This one's a real neck-saver, as you'll find the first time you pull up to one of those elusive overhead traffic lights.

HYDRAULIC VALVE LIFTERS No other low-priced car gives you this oil-hushed assurance of smoother, quieter performance on all standard engines.

CRANK-OPERATED VENTIPANES A pair of real fingernail-savers, as you know if you've ever tried to open a ventipane without that handy little crank.

GREATER ROOMINESS

Chevrolet seating space is up to a full 5.9 inches wider than other leading low-priced cars. And Chevy even outdoes most of the higher priced sedans in front seat head room.

BIGGEST BRAKES IN THE FIELD

Chevy's new Safety-Master brakes are built for up to two-thirds longer lining life. And you actually get more lining area than on many heavier, higher priced cars. How much is this extra margin of safety worth to you?

FULL COIL SUSPENSION

A few minutes behind the wheel will leave no doubt what this is worth. Chevy's the only leading low-priced car that coddles you with coil springs at all four wheels.

LINED LUGGAGE COMPARTMENT

You'll find this luggage-saver on all Chevrolets. But it's only offered on a few of the most expensive models of other makes in Chevy's field.

HIGHER RESALE VALUE

Your Chevy's worth more now—and it'll be worth more when you trade it. A look at last year's used car prices* shows Chevrolet averaged up to $128 more than comparable models of the "other two."

Service Is Set For Officers of Onteora Council

The Onteora Council of Christian Education will consecrate its officers for the year 1959-1960 at a consecration service, Monday, June 29, 8 p. m. at Ashokan Methodist Church. This Council consisting of cooperating Protestant churches in the Onteora School District, administers the Released-Time Christian Education at Boiceville Church School and West Hurley Methodist Church.

At the consecration service, the host minister and the past president of the Council, the Rev. Richard R. Guice, will lead the service of dedication and preach the sermon "Twelve Baskets Full."

Everyone is welcome to this service of the Onteora Council of Christian Education. Each cooperating church is urged to be present in the person of its minister and a group of laymen from the church.

At the annual meeting of the OCCE March 31, 1959, the following were elected as officers for the coming year: President, Donald Osgood, Shokan; Vice President, the Rev. Mrs. Evangeline Keesler, Allaben; Secretary, the Rev. Osterhout Phillips, Shokan; Treasurer, Arthur Henkel, Boiceville; director of the program at Boiceville, the Rev. Ernest Estes, Phoenicia; director of program at West Hurley, Mrs. Arthur Bachmann, West Hurley.

State Foundation Names New Chairman

NEW YORK (AP)—The president of Vassar College at Poughkeepsie, Miss Sarah Gibson Blanding, was elected Tuesday as chairman of the board of the Empire State Foundation of Independent Liberal Arts Colleges.

She succeeds Dr. Louis J. Long, president of Wells College at Aurora.

Among others elected were: Dr. Robert W. McEwen, president of Hamilton College, Clinton, vice chairman; Dr. Val Wilson, president of Skidmore College, Saratoga Springs, secretary, and Dr. Long, treasurer.

The foundation is an organization of 23 non-tax-supported liberal arts colleges in New York State.

Showers Forecast

NEW YORK (AP)—Possible showers Thursday afternoon or night were forecast today in New York. These could interfere with the heavyweight championship fight between Floyd Patterson and Ingemar Johansson in Yankee Stadium. In event of rain the fight would be held Friday night.

Hospital Project At Shandaken Is Deferred to '60

After returning from a winter vacation in Florida, Dr. F. H. Voss had a conference with George Fletcher, chairman, and Clarence T. Voss, co-chairman of the Shandaken Township Hospital Committee, and learned that the project has been deferred until 1960.

Next year a new census will be taken by the Federal government and the committee feels sure that it will show a marked increase in population in the area since the census of 1950. This increase, the committee believes, will enable the community to readily qualify for Federal aid. In the meantime an effort will be made to secure a hospital site and to list memorial gift pledges to be used when plans are completed in the future.

When the questionnaire was sent out in January, 1959 only 40 per cent were returned. An analysis of this percentage showed that 66 2/3 were in favor of a 52-bed hospital with Federal aid. One third were in favor of a 22-bed hospital. Only eight voted against a hospital of any kind.

Under the heading "remarks," it noted that a great percentage of those in favor wished the committee to defer building plans until a later date. The reasons given were the immediate needs of the school building plans of the Onteora Central School District with new bond issues and the Phoenicia Water District expansion program with its bond issue. In view of these facts, the committee felt it wise to defer action until next year.

The committee extends its thanks to all who aided in any way the survey and study.

Freedom Hopes For Long Rise In Legal Move

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—Mrs. Earl Long's decision to leave Louisiana for an extended rest today for victory Friday in his court battle for freedom from a state mental hospital.

Long's chief attorney, Joe Arthur Sims, said the latest development made the governor's release certain.

Sims broke the news of Mrs. Long's departure Tuesday night. He said he didn't know her destination, but she had been planning to go away since Sunday.

She had not disclosed any plans to oppose the habeas corpus proceedings, scheduled for 10 a. m. Friday at Covington. And, there has been no word of opposition from Sen. Russell Long (D-La.) or administration leaders.

At Sims' request, court authorities issued subpoenas Tuesday for Mrs. Long and 15 others wanted as witnesses. Lt. Gov. Luther Frantz, who has been reluctant to take over as governor, was among those subpoenaed.

Vigorous Exercise

BOSTON (AP)—Dr. Paul Dudley White, famed heart specialist, says "hard work, whether physical or mental, never killed a healthy man." He also told a meeting at Boston University Tuesday night that vigorous exercise and no weight gain after the age of 25 "will save many of our middle aged men."

Talk Is Firm, but Mild

Herter Offers No New Proposals or Solutions

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Christian A. Herter—in his TV-radio report to the nation Tuesday night—added nothing to what was already known about his troubles with the Soviet sat Geneva. He reviewed the obvious: the mild, 64-year-old Herter's talk, while firm, was also mild. He made a big point of emphasizing that the Western Allies would not abandon West Berlin. This may have been reassuring to the We Berliners, but it was hardly news.

Herter and the foreign ministers of Britain and France talked for six weeks—in sessions almost incredibly dull and colorless—at Geneva with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

They discussed at great length the Soviet demand that the Westerners get their troops out of West Berlin and the Westerners' refusal to do anything of the kind. They recessed last week until July 13 without reaching any agreement.

Becomes Very Vague

On the paramount question facing the ministers—is there any reason to believe they'll do better the next time?—Herter hit a small note of optimism and then became tremendously vague.

Herter said he and the other Western foreign ministers did not go to Geneva with "any high hopes." He regretted "no significant progress was made."

Then at the end of his talk Herter threw in this: "The conference revealed possible areas of agreement concerning specific arrangements for Berlin. I believe that it may be possible to build on these areas of agreement if the Soviet Union is prepared to accept the continued existence of a free West Berlin under Western protection."

If the Geneva talks so far have revealed anything it is that the Soviets are not prepared to do anything of the kind.

It was obvious before Herter and the others met Gromyko in Geneva that they could not abandon West Berlin which—although 110 miles inside Communist East Germany—is linked with the West's big ally, Western Germany.

No Practical Meaning

The Allied troops in the city have no practical meaning in the sense that they could stand off a Communist assault—if that day came. Their presence in the city is important for its symbolic meaning.

They are living evidence of the Western Allies support for the West Berliners, and the Allies' insistence on keeping the supply lines open to West Berlin—through East German territory—means the West provides the city's life blood.

If the troops were withdrawn and the supply lines closed, in no time the Soviet and German Communists could force the West Berliners to their knees. Their city would be part of the Communist world in no time.

Even worse, if the Western troops were withdrawn under Soviet pressure and threats, the whole Western alliance in Europe would come apart since its own members would lose confidence in its will and usefulness.

This was why the West went to Geneva determined—and is still determined—not to abandon West Berlin. So when Herter emphasized this in his talk he was stating not only the obvious but what already had been stated.

In short—taking Herter's talk as a whole he seems to have no more positive reason now for thinking agreement can be worked out with the Soviets than he did when he first went to Geneva in May. All he expressed Tuesday night was a small hope that maybe things can be different.

But he offered no new proposals or solutions.

Steel Industry Talks Stalemate As Strike Looms

NEW YORK (AP)—Steel negotiators entered the big buy-and-sell period today. They have talked without accomplishing anything for seven weeks. Now is the time to do business if a July 1 strike is to be avoided.

The steel talks are in a stalemate. Neither side has made any concessions. But with the strike date rapidly approaching, the Steelworkers Union and industry were beginning to do a bit of quiet horse trading.

R. Conrad Cooper, executive vice president of U.S. Steel Corp. and top bargainer for the industry, said steel companies have received no reasonable union offer worth considering.

President David J. McDonald of the Steelworkers Union said the industry has made no money offers.

Both carefully guarded their comments, under a common secrecy ban. It seemed reasonable that at this stage of the game both had begun trading settlement offers.

Cooper, although reluctant to talk about it, said steel mills will have to start banking furnaces within a few days anticipating a July 1 strike. Present contracts expire June 30.

40 Room Hotel Razed by Fire As Owners Flee

A three-story frame summer hotel in Tannersville burned to the ground early this morning in a fire of undetermined origin.

It was the Hillside Hotel on Railroad Avenue—a structure with some 40 rooms.

Three people were in the hotel at the time but escaped without injury. They were reported to be getting the hotel ready for the summer trade. It was scheduled to open in a few days.

Al Hommel, a village trustee and member of the Tannersville Fire Department, told The Freeman that the building "went up like a box." It was too far gone by the time fire equipment from the village and from Haines Falls could reach the scene.

The owner, Frank Zofian of New York City, has not released an estimate of loss, it was reported today.

Hommel said the alarm was received about 2 a. m. but that flames had "too much of a start" by the time equipment arrived.

The fire apparently started in the dining area.

Hommel said part of the main building is still standing, but that the hotel is gutted and the roof burned off.

Volunteers and equipment were still at the scene at 7:30 a. m. today.

Extended Weather Forecast Given

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—The extended weather forecasts for New York State, prepared by the U. S. Weather Bureau, for the period from 7 p. m. today through 7 p. m. Monday:

Eastern New York—Temperatures the next five days will average near normal with no major day-to-day changes. Total precipitation will average around one-half inch and range up to one inch in scattered areas. Showers or thundershowers Thursday and likely again about Sunday.

Western New York—Showers weather is indicated with temperatures averaging near normal. Seasonable temperatures until a turn to cooler Sunday or Monday. Scattered thundershowers throughout the period are expected to drop an average of more than one-half inch of rain.

Temperature normals—Daytime highest in middle 70s and low 80s. Overnight lows in the upper 50s to low 60s.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A woman state senator from New York State says Congress should provide additional safeguards in the program under which American couples adopt foreign orphans.

Sen. Janet Hill Gordon (R-Norwich), chairman of the Joint Legislative Committee on Matrimonial and Family Laws, said Tuesday that "extensive commercialism" was creeping into proxy adoptions, particularly those involving Greece.

Proxy adoptions are those in which couples in this country arrange to have someone else obtain the necessary court papers in a foreign country.

Sen. Gordon, testifying at a U. S. Senate hearing, said the New York legislative committee favored only a nine-month extension of the adoption program so that Congress next year could provide criminal penalties for commercial transactions in alien orphans.

Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis) is sponsoring a bill to make the alien-orphans program permanent and to place administrative responsibility in the hands of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Program To Expire
The present program is due to expire at the end of this month. Under it, alien orphans adopted by Americans can enter the country as non-quota immigrants.

Ernest A. Miller, consultant to Sen. Gordon's committee, urged that proxy adoptions be prohibited.

"The hard grim truth is," Miller said, "that the proxy system has only given priority to the baby selling racketeers who have been unable to manipulate and judge matters through the use of money or personal aggressiveness."

"In the case of Greece," he said, "they have secured practically a monopoly."

Miller said a report he submitted to the committee showed that an international ring had received over 1½ million dollars trafficking in Greek children adopted by American citizens through the proxy system.

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) has sponsored legislation to continue the orphan immigration program but ban proxy adoptions.

Short Circuit

A couch was destroyed and a section of living room damaged in a fire said to have started from a defective light cord on the second floor of a house at 34 Chapel Street yesterday afternoon. The blaze damaged a section of baseboard and wallpaper. The house, owned by Mrs. James McCauley, is occupied on the second floor by Walter Petruski. Units from Central and Cornell stations answered a call at 3:56 p. m., and the blaze was checked with a pump stream.

NEW PALTZ NEWS

Report Progress On Moriello Park

Great progress has been made the past week at the Mike Moriello Park. The fourth wall of the swimming pool is about completed. After being cleared and repaired, it will soon be ready for the influx of bathers expected soon.

Charles VanA 1st has been digging ditches in preparation for laying the pipe line to the filter tanks. The footing for the wading pool has been poured, and ditches to be laid from the houses on the property to the village sewer system are also being dug.

In the midst of all this activity, the Fourth of July Committee has become bogged down in concrete, therefore, it has been decided that it would be wiser to postpone the festive day until later in the season when the park may be in less chaotic condition.

Dr. Robert Reid, chairman of the bond sale committee reports $7,325 of bonds have been sold to date and anticipates another two thousand in the next two weeks.

The bonds were prepared for printing by Mrs. Thomas McKinney and David W. Corwin. They were printed by the Columbian-Security Banknote Company in New York.

Ashton Hart, president of the board, announces the appointment of Mrs. William Hurley to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Robert Swain who resigned last week.

A group of members met last week and made plans for hiring a plumber and electrician. This committee is headed by John Tenaquia. Dr. William Hughes reported that the Board of Health has issued a license for swimming again this summer, and has approved plans for the filter system and chlorination until the system is in operation.

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Gov. Rockefeller has forbidden his aides to accept any free passes to such events as prize fights and horse races.

This was learned today as it was disclosed that the Republican governor would attend the Patterson-Johnson championship fight Thursday in New York City. He will pay his own way.

The State Racing Commission recently sent the governor passes to thoroughbred tracks. Rockefeller returned them.

Car Hits Deer; Two Area Men Suffer Injuries

Two area men were treated for minor injuries suffered early this morning when a car operated by Roy Butz, 28 of Woodstock struck a deer on Route 28 near Bostock Road, and turned over.

Jack Quirk, 28 of West Shokan suffered injuries to his chest, back, left shoulder and head. The driver hurt his right leg. They were treated by a Woodstock physician.

Trooper Joseph Ventriglia of Kingston state police reported that Butz was proceeding west on Route 28 when he swerved in an unsuccessful attempt to avoid hitting a deer. The car turned over and was heavily damaged. Time of the mishap was 4:55 a. m.

Grange Project Moves to New Main Street Site

The Green Door Thrift Shop, a Huguenot Grange project, has been moved to Main Street, and is now under the chairmanship of Mrs. Daisy Kortright.

The shop will be open all day during the summer months for the convenience of the public. This enterprise is entirely operated by the Grange women. Ladies of the Grange staff this shop voluntarily. Many excellent bargains in clothing for the family, furniture, antiques and other items can be found here.

Last One-Room School to Close

The historic little one room school at Tuthilltown, the last district school in the New Paltz District is closing its doors permanently. It was announced this week.

In 1839 Joseph and Eliza Hasbrouck deeded the lot for this little school to the district where it has been in operation. Now it is closing its doors, thus ending another era. In the history of education, Mrs. Virginia Atkins, the teacher, has resigned in favor of traveling, reading, painting, and other activities.

issued a license for swimming again this summer, and has approved plans for the filter system and chlorination until the system is in operation.

Dio Getting Out To Face Other Charges

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Labor racketeer John (Johnny Dio) Dioguardi was to be released from Auburn prison today.

He will immediately face federal detainers on charges of income tax evasion and allegedly obstructing justice in the acid-binding of columnist Victor Riesel.

U. S. Atty. Theodore Bowes, announcing the government's plan, said Dio would be arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Edward Conan here. Bail was to be set at $25,000. Bowes said he expected Dio could put up the money.

Dio was mopping floors in the prison yesterday when he heard the Appellate Division of State Supreme Court had voted 15 to 3 to set aside a conviction and a 30-year sentence on a state charge of labor extortion.

The Appellate Division also reversed the conviction and sentence of John J. McNamara, a Teamsters Union official.

Dio and McNamara had been accused of extorting $47,000 from two corporations and three executives in return for labor peace. They were sentenced Jan. 8, 1958. Riesel, a newspaper columnist who specializes in a hoodlum tossed acid in his face and died. Federal authorities believe Dio planned the job.

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

Perhaps some of the readers noticed an item in New York News, under "Chatter," by A. D. about a current typewriter exhibit. It will run to June 27, at the Hefley and Browne Secretarial School, 7 Lafayette Avenue, Brooklyn. It is called "Century of the Typewriter." They have on display a 14-karat gold typewriter of modern design, and also the first typewriter put out commercially in 1873. They give credit to Christopher Latham Sholes, editor, printer, inventor and political scientist, for the typewriter. It seems that at first the letters were arranged in alphabetical order on the keyboard but then they changed it around to our present "standard key-board." Remember the old Oliver, a sturdy machine, but not a standard key-board. That was my first typewriter, and after using it a while, when I took typing at business school I had to re-learn the new keyboard. I have a machine, a portable, which has French and English characters, that has a different key-board, so that the English pound sign etc., can be included. No doubt there are many such machines all over the world.

World Facts—book gives Mitterhoffer, an Austrian, credit in 1864 for the typewriter and Sholes and Gidden, U.S.A., in 1868. It seems Mark Twain was the first American author to turn out a manuscript on a typewriter. It would be interesting to see an exhibition of typewriters, old and new, foreign and U.S.A. in Kingston.

I see in Danton Walker's column, "Broadway," in N. Y. News, a picture of Carl Carmer, famous Hudson River author, and he mentions Andrew J. Downing. On Downing's monument is written, "born, lived and died upon the Hudson." Downing was born in Newburgh in 1815, "a self-educated son of a poor nursery man, who wrote, 'Landscape Gardening,' 'Architecture for Country Houses' and 'Cottage

June 17—Darryl Gregory to Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Simon, RD 5, Box 152, Kingston.

June 18—Patrick Dennis to Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. McNamara, Hurley, and John to Mr. and Mrs. Edward John Nee, 38 Walkill Avenue, Tillson.

June 19—Michael Louis to Mr. and Mrs. Louis John Oldani, Birch Street, Forest Glen Park, Town of Ulster.

Civil Service Exam

Bernard Katz, executive secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, at the New York Post Office, announces an open continuous examination for Postal Transportation Clerk, often popularly called "Railway Mail Clerk." Applicants for this examination must be residents of the State of New York. Starting salaries begin at $2 an hour and reach $2.42 an hour through annual increases.

A written test will be given but there is no experience required.

The Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners at the New York Post Office has been authorized to conduct examinations to fill Postal Transportation Clerk vacancies at New York, Long Island, and Albany, under an agreement reached between the Hon. Robert K. Christenberry, Acting Postmaster, New York Post Office, C. B. C. Fellows Regional Personnel Manager, and Chairman of the Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners at this office, and James P. Googe, Regional Director, U. S. Civil Service Commission.

At the start of 1959, 4,925,000 persons were covered by employer-employee pension plans in the United States.

Some 'Live Ghosts' Due for July 4 Weekend

Unmanned Trooper Cars Help Make N. Y. Thruway World's Safest Super Highway

By HARVEY TRAVIS

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—"Ghosts" help make the New York State Thruway the safest superhighway in the world, State Police feel, and the ghosts will be there over the July 4 holiday.

The ghosts are unmanned patrol cars parked at intervals along the 539-mile expressway during peak travel periods.

Troopers began the experiment two years ago. Without reading motorists' minds, "no one knows just what effect the sight of a police car has on drivers."

Cuts Down Speed
But State Police have noticed fast-traveling cars slow down. "It (the ghosts) reminds drivers that the police are around," says Lt. Martin Hynes, assistant traffic supervisor.

On occasion, a motorist comes upon a "live" ghost that wheels out on his tail.

"The driver never knows for sure whether the next car will be empty," Hynes says, "so he doesn't take chances."

Besides the deterrent effect, troopers say, the ghosts serve to snap drivers out of an occasional "fog." Driving hour after hour on a broad, smooth highway tends to induce "highway hypnosis."

"Ghosts" Wake Drivers Up

Thruway officials hammer away at travelers to vary their speeds at travelers to stop and stretch or rest. The ghost helps in this job too, Hynes observes. "It wakes them up."

Hynes says the plan has drawn a lot of comment. Some drivers see merit in the idea. Others call it a waste of time, cars and manpower.

Hynes points out, however, that the cars are spares; their regular drivers are on pass or vacation. The ghosts are stationed by troopers "on reserve." None is taken off active patrol. The cars are picked up by the same crews.

The 172-man Thruway detail of State Police, under the command of Capt. Robert V. Annett, has 108 cars in service and 20 more in reserve. Of the 108 on patrol, 20 are concealed identity cars—some bright and flashy.

On weekends, three or four ghosts are parked along every 100-mile section of the superhighway.

17 Deaths in 1958
On a recent weekend, for example, 16 cars were stationed along the Thruway.

While troopers say the effects of the ghost idea cannot be assessed, they point out that the 17 deaths on the Thruway last year represented a fatality rate of .37 for every 100 million miles traveled—the best record of any superhighway.

The corresponding rate for New York State highways was 4.8 and for the nation 5.6.

Atom Spy Moves Behind Curtain After Release

BERLIN (AP) — Klaus Fuchs disappeared behind the Iron Curtain Tuesday night saying he bears no grudge against the British for his nine years in prison as an atom spy.

The German-born scientist was hustled out of England after his release from a 14-year sentence for handing secrets of the atomic bomb to the Soviet Union. He had been stripped of his naturalized British citizenship upon his conviction, and the British government did not try to prevent him from joining his father in Communist East Germany.

Newsmen were barred from speaking to Fuchs during his last hours in England. But several booked seats aboard the Polish airliner that flew him to Germany and reported their interviews with him today.

Rejoins Father

"I wish to say that I bear no resentment whatever against Britain or any of the Western countries for what has happened," the 47-year-old physicist said.

"I would also say that I am pleased to be going to the (East) German Democratic Republic. But about my future plans I have made no definite arrangements."

He would only say he is rejoining his father, Dr. Emil Fuchs, a professor of theology in Leipzig.

Fuchs worked with British and American scientists on the development of the atomic bomb and at the time of his arrest was chief of theoretical physics at Britain's Harwell nuclear research establishment.

Asked what he thought about East-West political conflicts, Fuchs said "The trouble arises when people begin to believe lies of their own making."

Newsmen pressed him to elaborate but he declined.

New Hurley

NEW HURLEY — Mrs. Alexander Watt of Philadelphia was a recent weekend guest at the home of her sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Garrison.

Mrs. John A. Thurston and companion attended the wedding of a friend at Salem Depot, N. H. Saturday.

There will be regular preaching services in New Hurley Church Sunday at 11 a. m. and Sunday school at 9:45 in the church hall.

The ladies of New Hurley Church will hold a picnic on the church lawn Wednesday, July 1 at 12:30 p. m. Those attending should bring a pot-luck dish and place settings. Articles for the layette should be brought on this date.

The annual church fair under the auspices of the New Hurley Guild will be held at the church hall Wednesday evening, July 15 with a cafeteria supper. There will also be the following booths, fancywork, baked goods, special corsages, and souvenir plates with a picture of the church. New Hurley Sunday school and church picnic will be held at the Warwick Estates, new conference center Saturday July 18.

MODENA NEWS

MODENA — The second polio clinic will be held Friday from 7 to 9 p. m. at Hasbrouck Memorial Hall, here.

This immunization clinic is one of a series to be held in the communities of Walkkill, Ellenville, Woodstock, Highland and Plattkill, with funds from the recent March of Dimes campaign conducted in Ulster County.

The vaccine will be supplied without charge for use in pre-school clinics, sponsored by the Ulster County Health Department, and will also be made available to interested members of organizations desiring to sponsor and organize vaccination clinics for those under 40 years of age.

Interested groups should notify County Health Department at Kingston.

Christine Mathieson is a member of the alternate patrol of Senior Girl Scouts of Ulster County, a group represented by three delegates attending the Senior Girl Scout roundup at Colorado Springs, July 1-14.

It is estimated that thousands of Girl Scouts from the eastern sections of the United States will attend the roundup.

Miss Everice Parsons of Kingston, who has served as demonstration agent for the Ulster County Home Bureau over a period of many years, is reported to be a patient at St. Francis Hospital, in Hartford, Conn.

Miss Parsons is well-known here, working with the Modena unit.

Mrs. Florence Roosa of Hurley, a former local resident, visited Mrs. William Decker here, Friday.

Mrs. Roosa had word from her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Lodato Jr., who were married Saturday, June 13, at St. Joseph's Church, Kingston, and are on their honeymoon in Washington, D. C., Atlantic City and Asbury Park, N. J.

On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Lodato will make their home in New Windsor. Mr. Lodato is employed in Newburgh.

Adeline Roland and daughter, Judy, have arrived at their home, on the Clintondale Road, for the summer vacation period.

Patricia Pagente has completed her studies at the St. Joseph Parochial School, New Paltz. Graduation exercises were held Sunday at the school, with the Rev. Joseph Blake presiding.

Marine Acting Sgt. Lawrence Palen of Ardonia, graduated from the advanced supply administration course at Marine Corps Supply School, Camp Lejeune, recently, according to reports received by relatives here.

Mrs. Ernest Keeping and children, Mrs. Charles Smith and children, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Preston J. Partridge, during the past week.

Mrs. Roy Jansen of this place, was a member of the committee in the Town of Plattkill, collecting funds in the recent Cancer control campaign.

Patricia Sutton received the award of the pen and pencil set, made by members of Plattkill Lion Club, for having the highest scholastic standard in the sixth grade at Modena school, at the closing of the school year.

This award is made each year by members of the club, to scholars completing studies in the sixth grade in schools of the Town of Plattkill.

These pupils are eligible to attend schools of higher grades, in this or other districts.

Hospitalization Period Reduced For Mentally Ill

Hospitalization of mentally disturbed patients has been reduced from three or four years to an average of 23 days due to improved techniques and attitudes. President Robert Sabin of the Ulster County Mental Health Association told the Kingston Lions Club at its Tuesday luncheon meeting.

Responsible for this improvement are three things, he said: 1. Drug therapy, 2. Immediate treatment and 3. Open door policy, in which people are allowed to walk about the grounds without restraint and to take care of themselves, a source of considerable therapeutic value.

He said mental health is ranked No. 1 among major health problems. He divided mental health into three categories—Mentally disturbed people, mentally retarded people and the criminally insane.

The local association is interested in the mentally disturbed people—in their return to society.

The association is a citizens organization interested in working in support of the mental health clinic. It seeks to publicize the fact that clinical help is available, to promote better understanding of mental health and to eliminate the stigma attached to mental disturbance.

Sabin urged support of the newly formed association.

He was introduced by Joseph Saccamano, program chairman. President George Svirsky presided.

20 Drivers Pay $175 for Traffic Violations in City

Twenty drivers on a docket of 40 cases in city court last night paid $175 in fines.

Other cases were put over or dismissed and bench warrants were issued to bring in several who failed to appear.

Eight drivers paid $15 each on speeding counts. They were Thomas Abatzis, Route 4, Box 175, Saugerties; Warren Grimm, Lake Katrine, Francis Fisher, 198 Main Street, John Kwant, 783 Broadway, Ethel Van Vleet, 38 Plattkill Avenue, New Paltz, Olin Clarke, 138 Newkirk Avenue, James Patridge, PO Box 71, Mt. Marion, and Wesley Van Vleet, New Paltz.

Booked on five charges, Thomas Apocoe, of 10 Hoffman Street, was fined $5 on a red light charge, and was given a suspended sentence on the charge that he drove with one registration plate. Hearing on charges that he lacked an inspection sticker and failed to change address on neither license or registration was put over to June 30.

Fined $5 each for traffic light violations were Phil Parodi, Port Ewen; David Lindsay, 58 Meadow Street and Chris Lay, 10 Smith Avenue. A charge dealing with lack of license against the latter was dismissed.

Charged with lack of inspection stickers, Charles Havlin, 45 Downs Street, and Ralph Carpio, East Kingston were fined $5 each. Frederick A. Brink, Colonial Gardens, charged with driving the wrong way on a one-way street was fined $5, and Rudolph Wells, RD 5, Kingston paid $5 on a stop-sign charge.

A charge dealing with lack of registration against Adrian Oster, 141 Foxhall Avenue, was dismissed.

Donald Scarth, of West Hurley was fined $15 today on a charge of speeding.

Session Is Called On Speaker and Monaghan Case

By CHARLES DUMAS

Associated Press Staff Writer ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller today called the Legislature into special session next Wednesday so that the Assembly can select a new speaker and the lawmakers can deal with the controversy over the state harness racing commissioner.

The governor did not say in his call exactly what he proposed to do about Commissioner George P. Monaghan, whom he has asked to resign because of alleged unethical conduct.

However, Rockefeller is believed to be considering legislation Monaghan out of office by creating a three-member commission to replace him.

In his formal call, Rockefeller said the first purpose was "affording the Assembly an opportunity to elect a speaker."

Joseph F. Carino of Nassau County, who has been majority leader for five years, is expected to win election as speaker to succeed the late Oswald D. Heck of Schenectady.

Rockefeller said the second purpose of his call was "having the Legislature consider legislation pertaining to harness racing, which I propose to submit to it."

Under terms of state law, special sessions of the Legislature may consider only subjects specified by the governor in his call.

Life Insurance Stocks
Furnish Little Income
But Pay Off in Growth

ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. From a New York reader, "I hold a number of common stocks and look mostly for growth, not income. I've read a bit about some of the life insurance stocks increasing more in value than some other groups."

What is your opinion and what do you think of Wisconsin Life Insurance and Old Republic Life Insurance? Would you advise any others? I would appreciate your comments on the stocks I own and am enclosing a list of my holdings."

A. As I have said before in this column life insurance stocks are one of the best, possibly the very best medium for growth gains. They are suitable for investment for those who can do without current income in the expectation of getting paid off in substantial stock dividends and above-average price appreciation over an extended period.

But, I would not advise purchase of life insurance stocks for short-term gains, although there are some times possible. Reviewing the list you sent me and your preference for growth, you seem to me to be well situated to add some life insurance issues to your portfolio.

Why Life Stocks Grow
Life companies derive their income from two main sources, premium revenues and return on invested reserves. In effect they offer you a successful business operation combined with a growing investment trust. Up until now, life companies have been taxed at a very low rate which has unquestionably helped their unusual rate of growth. Congress has just about agreed on a new tax formula which will put tax payments by about 60 per cent. This will slow down the future growth rate, but the new formula, in my opinion, allows plenty of room for continued expansion.

Both Selections Are Good

I have looked at the information available in my office on Old Republic and Wisconsin Life. Both of these companies appear to be substantial and growing situations. Each has over two billion dollars of insurance in force. Old Republic operates in all of the states, according to my records. The company has paid stock dividends pretty consistently, ranging from 50 per cent in 1945 to 10 per cent in 1958. Wisconsin Life operates in six states only, my files say. The company has paid larger but less frequent stock dividends than Old Republic in recent years. There was a payment of 150 per cent in 1951. In early May of this year, 100 per cent in stock was distributed.

There has been some weakness recently in life insurance stocks on reports of higher federal taxation. In the past, these periods of weakness have usually turned out later to have been good buy spots. In addition to the two situations you are considering, you might also take a look at Franklin Life Insurance. This stock has had one of the most fantastic growth records of them all. Since 1951, the shares have risen in value about 2300 per cent, with huge stock dividends contributing. Franklin Life has come down a little in price from recent high and I believe the shares would be a good buy in the high 60s.

One Switch Suggested

I like many of the stocks you own, but see little growth ahead in some of them. I would certainly hold duPont, your only chemical. Tennessee Gas and Panhandle Eastern have been hurt marketwise by some recent decisions of the Federal Power Commission which investors consider unfavorable to the gas producer. For the present I would hold these stocks, which seem to be oversold. Raytheon sold off sharply on the resignation of executive vice president Geneen, who was considered a factor in the company's recent growth. I would rather buy than sell the shares at recent levels, and Newport News has acted poorly and the unsatisfactory near-term outlook for shipbuilding is responsible. This is not a growth stock. I would switch this issue into Monsanto Chemical, around 50 on the Big Board, which should be a more rewarding holding to you over the next few years.

Send your investment questions to Mr. Roger E. Spear, care of this paper.

Eraso Completes $2,500 Taxi Trip

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Venezuelan industrialist Enrique A. Eraso and his wife arrived in Mexico City Tuesday from Miami by taxi-cab.

Driver Peter Molina said he thought Eraso was joking when he said he wanted a ride to Mexico City in his cab.

When he found Eraso was serious, he asked if he could bring along his own wife, and the Venezuelan agreed.

The couple left Miami June 13 in Molina's 1959 air-conditioned Cadillac. Their leisurely, 2,500-mile ride cost Eraso $2,500.

Vols Back Brett Sprinkler Idea For Public Places

The Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association at its June meeting held June 16 at Saugerties, unanimously adopted a resolution endorsing the stand of Fire Chief James M. Brett in which he advocates the installation of sprinkler systems in school buildings and public buildings.

The June meeting was held at Saugerties, as guests of the Saugerties Fire Department.

Chief Brett has repeatedly pointed out the benefits of sprinkler systems in buildings and in particular in schools and public buildings which are not inhabited at all times.

Recently the State Education Department sent a communication to the local board of education in which it was stated that, in the opinion of the state department, sprinklers were not necessary in one-story, fire-resistant school buildings.

16-Hour Riot

baseball bats, hammer handles and two-foot lengths of one-inch pipe.

At 12:55 Tuesday afternoon they moved into "10 North" in five squads, hurling tear gas grenades. A bulldozer ripped bars from a window as a diversionary move. Appley and two other hostages crawled under a bed seeking protection from the gas.

"I thought I would die," said Appley. "I had to get outside in a hurry. Some old boy grabbed me and helped me out."

"The inmates and the guards were really battling. We waded right into that melee and got through all right."

That was the way federal prison guards broke up 16 hours of rioting by 106 psychopathic prisoners.

The bidding by Stewart Evans and Mrs. Dale (Dot) Miller of Dallas is quite interesting.

Her four hearts was a dual purpose bid. She expected to have a play for it and also hoped to shut out the spade suit.

When West refused to be shut out Stewart jumped to six hearts. He was willing for Dot to play it and also willing to double six spades if East bid it.

East thought about bidding six spades but decided that Stewart was trying to stampede him into that contract and chose what he thought was a sure thing double.

It wasn't! No defense could beat the hand. Mrs. Miller trumped the opening diamond in dummy, discarded her club on the ace of spades and started a cross ruff.

West slowed her down for a moment by trumping the third diamond but unfortunately for him he could not lead a trump so eventually Dot made all four of dummy's trumps, the ace of spades and her own seven trumps for a total of 12 tricks.

Former Communist Party Men Indicted

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—Two former members of the Communist Party have been indicted on citations for contempt of Congress for refusing to name other party members.

A federal grand jury indicted Sidney Turoff and Sidney H. Ingerman Tuesday. Both live in Buffalo.

They admitted their previous membership in the Communist Party when they appeared before the House Un-American activities subcommittee in 1957 in Buffalo. Both said they had left the party that year.

The government charged that they refused to answer the subcommittee questions and to name other party members.

The House voted contempt citations against them last year and the case was then presented to the grand jury in Rochester.

Class Embarrassed

RENSSELAER, N. Y. (AP)—Everything was going along fine at graduation ceremonies Tuesday night at Van Rensselaer High School. Then, school officials went to get the 19 awards to be presented.

A red-faced official announced that someone had tampered with the combination of the school safe.

Prize-winning graduates were given token envelopes. They'll get their awards—cash, medals, etc.—after the school gets a locksmith.

Marine Killed

NAHA, Okinawa (AP)—Marine Pfc. Hiram J. Mead Jr., 19, of Whitney Point, N. Y., was killed last Friday in an artillery range accident at Camp Hansen, in central Okinawa.

A Marine spokesman said Mead was trying to remove a projectile, which had failed to fire from the breach of a recoilless rifle and the propellant charge exploded.

Mead was with the 3rd Marine Antitank Battalion.

Policeman's Son Faces New Charge In Robbery Case

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—A police lieutenant's son, already held in one loan-company hold-up, has been charged with first-degree robbery in another one. The total loot was $3,331.

Charles D. Schultz, 26, was charged with first-degree robbery Tuesday in the hold-up of the Seaboard Finance Co. in suburban West Seneca last month.

On Monday he pleaded innocent to a first-degree robbery charge in the $1,903 hold-up of the Liberty Loan Co. in downtown Buffalo last Friday. The bandit escaped by hopping into a taxi.

Schultz was held in $2,500 bail for a hearing July 1. He is a fruit peddler and the father of five children.

Ex-Convict Accused Of Teaching Crime

NEW YORK (AP)—An ex-convict has been accused of training children in crime.

Police say Joseph Thomas, 23, who was paroled last year after a burglary conviction, trained eight boys to steal, then bought their loot for pennies.

Thomas, police say, taught the boys how to cut holes in the roof of a hardware supply house, then lower themselves inside with ropes. The company was burglarized five times in the past three months and reported losses of up to $3,000 in equipment and $500 in cash.

Police cracked the case after a school paper, with one of the boys' names on it, was found in the warehouse.

Thomas was charged Tuesday with burglary, impairing the morals of minors, and receiving stolen goods. All in the case are Negroes.

Phone Rates Rise

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—The Public Service Commission authorized Dimock Hollow Telephone Co. today to increase rates July 1 to the approximately 740 subscribers it serves in Otsego and Chenango Counties. The increase will range from 50 cents to $2 a month, depending upon the type of service.

Harriman Dines

MOSCOW (AP)—W. Averell Harriman and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev had dinner together Tuesday night.

The atmosphere was warm and friendly, according to the Soviet news agency Tass.

The former New York governor was Khrushchev's guest at the premier's villa outside Moscow. Other guests included Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko, and Deputy Premiers Frol Kozlov and Anastas I. Mikoyan.

NEW "NO SQUEAL" ATLAS BUCRON TIRES

These are the sensational tires that ride, stop, look, and last like no others!

This is the season to get acquainted with the remarkable new tires of man-made miracle rubber... Atlas Bucron Tires. No matter where you drive them, the difference in ride is noticeable at once. In turnpike driving, road noise and car rattles virtually disappear. For this new tire flows over uneven spots, instead of bouncing over them.

And this revolutionary rubber grips roads so well that you can't make Atlas Bucron Tires squeal even with tight turns and panic stops. In fact, they stop shorter on wet surfaces than others on dry... 30% shorter than the best ordinary rubber tires! Yet they cost less than most premium tires.

Now that the pleasure-driving season is here, we earnestly suggest that you visit your Esso Dealer's and get a full set of "No Squeal" Atlas Bucron Tires, made of Butyl, a product of Esso Research. See how much enjoyment, luxury, and extra safety they add to your "Happy Motoring!"

HUG THE ROAD SO WELL YOU CAN'T MAKE THEM SQUEAL. That's a unique feature of this new kind of tire. Another — they soak up road shock so efficiently that you get a brand new kind of ride.

STOP FASTER ON WET ROADS THAN OTHER TIRES CAN ON DRY. Test after test proves that these tires stop 30% faster than ordinary rubber tires. Their special design puts more rubber in contact with the road.

YEARS OF TESTING PROVE LONG LIFE. In desert sun and mountain cold, tires of Butyl stay flexible, don't dry or crack like other rubber. They withstand deterioration, a unique contribution to longer life.

The Mid-Hudson Kennel Club will hold an AKC Sanctioned All-Breed and Obedience Match Show, Sunday, at Lincoln Center in Poughkeepsie. Entries will be accepted at 1 p. m. and judging will start at 2 p. m. The show will take place outdoors, except in the case of rain.

Dogs with three or more points will not be allowed to compete in the breed classes and utility dogs will not be allowed in the obedience classes. Licensed handlers are permitted to enter and show dogs owned by them or members of their immediate family and household.

Breed judges will be Bert Prince, New Milford, Conn.; Ethel Decker, New Milford, Conn. Obedience judges are Mrs. Gordon C. Young, Rye; Hazel Fletcher, Terryville, Conn. and Mrs. Chester A. Wilson, Albany. Ribbons and prizes will be awarded in all classes.

Show chairman is Mrs. Joseph R. Keesler, Newburgh and obedience chairman is Mrs. A. J. P. Seitz, Kingston.

Ithaca Woman Heads Women's Relief Corps

UTICA, N. Y. (AP)—Mrs. Sarah Wilkinson of Ithaca is the new president of the New York State unit of the Women's Relief Corps, Auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic.

She was elected Tuesday night to succeed Mrs. Mary Corra of Niagara Falls.

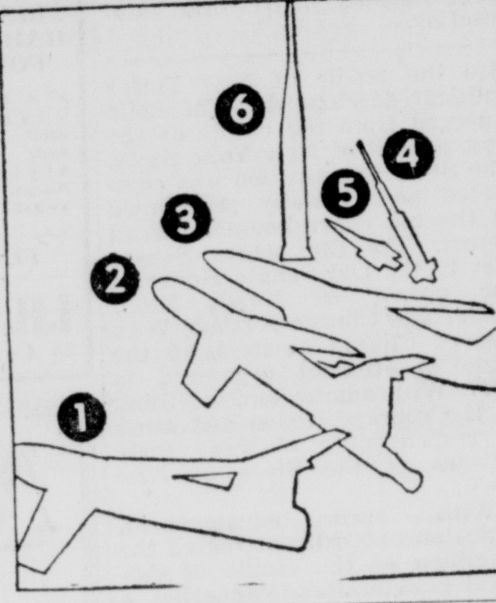

Others elected: Miss Hattie Scott of Oswego, senior vice president; Mrs. Grace Cook of Potsdam, junior vice president; Mrs. Marian Ellis of Rochester, treasurer; Miss Emma Hopping of Red Hook, chaplain, and Mrs. Carolyn Mason of Batavia, chairman of the executive board.

The group ends its 76th annual convention today.

Six of the country's most important pieces of missile "hardware" are lined up for display at Lowry AFB, Colo. Sketch at right identifies them: (1) jet-powered Matador; (2) Mace, successor to Matador; (3) jet-powered Snark, America's only operational 5,000-mile range guided missile; (4) X-17 research rocket; (5) Bomarc, anti-aircraft missile; and (6) Thor-Able, space research version of the Thor intermediate-range ballistic missile.

Governor Encourages Home Rule for Counties

SCHROON LAKE, N. Y. (AP)—County governments should take advantage of new state laws that give them more power to govern themselves, Gov. Rockefeller says.

Rockefeller spoke at the annual meeting of the Supervisors Assn. of New York State, an organization of members of county boards of supervisors.

The governor pointed out that New York voters had approved an amendment to the State Constitution that authorized county "home rule" and that the Legislature had passed laws enabling counties to set up charter governments.

"I encourage the thorough exploration of the benefits that can be achieved through home-rule charters," the governor said.

"It is my hope," he said, "that constitutional county home rule will help provide county governments with the flexibility needed to cope with their ever increasing problems."

Accused Teacher To Visit Russia For Conference

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—Dr. Charles J. Goebel, a physics professor awaiting trial on a manslaughter charge, has been given permission to go to Russia for a scientific conference.

Normally, he would not be allowed to leave Monroe County. He has been free in $2,500 bail.

Goebel, 28, was indicted on a charge of second-degree manslaughter in the death last month of a neighbor's boy, six-year-old Michael Sorce.

Goebel told police he became enraged when he saw the Sorce boy shoving his son, George, 3, in his front yard. Goebel said he hurled the Sorce boy to the ground. A stick the boy was carrying penetrated his brain through the right eye.

The district attorney's office said Tuesday, "We could see no practical reason why he should not be permitted to attend this important conference in Russia."

He will be one of the youngest of the 60 American scientists at the ninth annual High-Energy Nuclear Physics Conference from July 15 to July 25 at Kiev.

Dr. Robert E. Marshak, chairman of the University of Rochester physics department and one of the founders of the conference, said that it was most important that Goebel attend the conference.

Youth Surrender Ends Intensive Upstate Manhunt

PALMYRA, N. Y. (AP)—"I guess you're looking for me," said Robert G. Blair to a sheriff's deputy. His quiet surrender Tuesday ended an intensive manhunt in Central New York.

Blair, 24, was accused of firing a shotgun at his father and then taking his step-mother and another woman as hostages. The shotgun pellets grazed his father's neck.

Four hours later, Blair stopped his automobile at an intersection where a deputy's car was parked and gave up quietly.

With him was Mrs. Mabel Blair, 47, his step-mother and Mrs. Hazel Power of Farmington in Ontario County. Blair allegedly forced Mrs. Power to go with him, after he stopped at her farm.

Police said Blair's father, Charles, 59, had just stepped into his house Tuesday morning when Mrs. Blair called out, "Your son is going to kill you." Then came the shotgun blast.

The elder Blair said he had been "having trouble with the boy for some time."

Wayne County authorities charged Blair with second-degree assault. He was taken to a hospital in Rochester for observation.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Uncle Sam's stock of gold is dropping below 20 billion dollars for the first time since 1940. Its high mark was in 1949 when it was nearly 25 billion.

At the same time, total payments by the United States to other nations continue to exceed receipts from them. Latest figures show exports slipping while imports hold high.

These trends react on each other. The record loss of gold last year—nearly 2½ billion dollars—was due in large measure to the fact that some nations were getting more dollars through sale of their goods here than they were paying out for American goods. So they had dollars they could change into gold to build up their reserves.

To some Americans the situation is alarming—that is, they fear the condition is a continuing one that could drain the gold stock to an embarrassingly low level.

To others it seems healthy—that is, it's a good thing that Uncle Sam's friends are improving their reserves and getting their currencies back on sound ground.

In between lies a body of opinion that thinks the international balance of payments will work out in time along normal lines. Even with a trifle less than 20 billion dollars in gold, the United States will still have more than half of the metal this side of the Iron Curtain.

The immediate cause for the slip below 20 billion is a payment of 344 million dollars in gold to the International Monetary Fund as part of the United States' increased subscription to the fund. The U.S. Treasury also will be making some three billion dollars more available on call—not in cash—to the World Bank.

Actually the giant share of the gold we've been losing hasn't left the country. It has been transferred to the bank vaults where it is earmarked for the country paying for it in dollars. The vaults now hold around nine billion dollars of such gold.

The central banks of other nations can buy gold from the U.S. Treasury with their dollars. American citizens, or private citizens of other lands, cannot.

Last year, when interest rates on U.S. securities were lower, other countries tended to turn their spare dollars into gold to improve their reserve standings. This year, with security yields higher, more of the dollars are being invested in them and buying of gold has slipped from its former pace. Gold doesn't pay interest—securities do.

The Circus is coming to town! Little boys—big boys—and Daddys, too, all love a circus... and my Daddy has promised to take me.

I know he's very busy—'cause he doesn't have much time to spend with us at home—and I know he'd like to because our little baby is so cute—we all love (him).

That little coniver—he figured by saying that I'd take him to the Circus right here in the paper, I couldn't get out of it. Well, it's a good excuse to eat peanuts and drink pop—and relax.

Kingston High School Graduates 398 Seniors At Commencement Exercises Tuesday Night

A total of 398 seniors were graduated from Kingston High School Tuesday night in commencement exercises at the municipal auditorium. Of the group 22 were honor graduates.

Diplomas were presented to graduates by Robert Herzog, president of the board of education. Awards were given by Dr. Earl F. Soper, superintendent of schools.

The following valedictory address was presented by Jerome E. Singer:

JEROME E. SINGER

This evening marks for us all the culmination of the first significant period of formal education in our lives. As young Americans, we have been nurtured in our growth under a free system, in the great democracy which is America. We have seen and experienced the benevolent influences of our free political and economic institutions. Now we are about to go on our own separate ways, making our own decisions and assimilating ourselves into a free society.

All of us are aware of, all of us appreciate the benefits accruing from our popular form of government and from our political and economic freedom. It is entirely appropriate that we do this. At the same time, however, coming of age as responsible citizens of the world, we would do well to consider that inseparable bond with freedom is responsibility. Indeed, absolute freedom exists nowhere on earth, but only varying degrees of constraint, constraint imposed upon us by our obligations. As graduates, we must not succumb to the myth that receiving the skin of a dead sheep at graduation will keep our minds alive forever. Similarly, we must recognize, as Americans, that having attained a dominant position as a world power only serves to emphasize and increase our responsibilities.

Our age has been termed the "Age of Science"; it might more properly be termed the "Age of Waste." For we have used science much less toward the benefit of mankind than toward humanity's potential destruction. Consider what scourges in the form of famine and disease could be obliterated, if the powers of the earth would devote half the energy to conquering these, that they devote to developing more and more horrible instruments for annihilation. It is regrettably obvious in even the most cursory review of modern history, that the scientific progress which has taken place during the past half century has not been accompanied by a corresponding growth in the moral fibre of the world's leaders. There is a disturbing paradox today in the fact that while men are engaged in the conquest of outer space, and have, in fact, almost succeeded in reaching the sun with a rocket, diplomats are unable to agree in common trust at the conference table—indeed they cannot even agree always on the shape of the table itself.

Another ironical fact is that while billions of dollars are spent each year by the governments of the great powers to maintain standing armies and to develop and produce weapons which become obsolete almost as soon as they are produced, the fight against misery caused by the yet unconquered diseases such as heart disease and cancer are carried on largely without the aid of public funds and must look to private generosity for support.

Let me emphasize that America must take the lead in a constructive redirection of aims. If wars are indeed instigated by leaders overriding the will of the masses, the onus of responsibility is upon us, America, the great power whose ultimate course rests on the will of the people, to assume the initiative for peace. The world will look to America for inspiration. We, the rising leaders of our country, must assume the responsibility for the course America takes. We cannot escape history. We certainly do not wish history to smile sardonically at the spectacle of a free, endowed, powerful people which proved unable to avert a foreseeable disaster for humanity. We must insure that the pages of history will never again be darkened by the accounts of a great conflict. For let us not delude ourselves on this point from the next global conflict no winner will emerge. Defenses based upon massive retaliation offer little consolation to the true humanitarian.

On the other hand, all roads are open to us toward a fuller richer life in a peaceful world. All that need be exercised is a little conscience and restraint. Outer space may become an area for international cooperation, for peaceful collaboration in the further uncovering of the mysteries of God's universe, or it may become simply another battlefield. It is our generation which will decide.

We should not lack inspiration in our task. Distinguished American educators, returning recently from a trip through the Soviet Union, stated their belief that the Russians derive a great inspiration from this fact: they consider all progress in their country to be a direct result of their conception, of their system, which they themselves wrought with their own hands. All which they have accomplished they view as the proud products of their revolution. I recalled, as I read the account, that we Americans fought a revolution in this country once—a bit more removed in point of time to be sure, but manifestly more uplifting in its aftermath. In short, if Soviet citizens can feel pride in and gratitude toward a system which has actually enslaved them, cannot we Americans draw a much greater measure of inspiration from the revolution and ideals which set us free?

Our land is rich; our people are rich. But the future is not to be conjectured or dreamed about; it is to be worked for. Let us use our incalculable potential, our immeasurable resources, our untold inventive capacities, for good and not for evil, for a blessing and not for a curse, for peace and not for war.

Salutatorian Patricia A. Woinoski

oski gave the following address on Kingston as the Cradle of New York State.

PATRICIA WOINOSKI

Mine is a most pleasant task this evening, as I am the instrument through which the greeting of my classmates is extended to all of you. For them I bid you welcome to our commencement exercises, knowing that you are happy to be with us and to share in this occasion. Each one of us has a separate greeting for each one of you. For our parents there is a very special greeting, because you, throughout the course of our school lives, have shared our hopes and our fears, our triumphs and our sorrows. Tonight we have attained the ultimate in hope, happiness, and triumph. To our friends we extend another special greeting. Your being with us tonight shows that you have been interested in our progress and that you will continue to be so. We cannot fulfill our hopes and our dreams until we in turn occupy the places you now proudly hold. Thus it has been each year since parents and friends gathered at the commencement exercises of students everywhere. Hence it is now fitting that we give some thought to the historical background of our community which has provided the foundation for occasions such as this.

This is our year of historical celebration. Our hearts and minds vibrate to this theme, for we are attuned to respond to a heritage that is particularly and permanently ours. To appreciate our history more fully, we must look back at our forefathers. They united their efforts to earn for Kingston the title of the "Cradle of New York State." Because Kingston was a pioneer in free education, because Kingston was the cornerstone in New York's political history, because Kingston nourished cultural growth, because she gave birth to these, Kingston deserves the title of the "Cradle of New York State."

The first people to be rocked in this fertile cradle were the Dutch settlers, intrepid people whose hopes were varied as their personalities. This valley, attractive to them for economic reasons, offered them completely new life. To their New World fears were added Old World superstitions. For these settlers, mere figment of the mind, "Witch catchers" built into chimneys of the old stone houses congeries of a series of solid iron bars with sharpened 3-inch spikes at regular intervals. Witches trying to enter a Dutch home would certainly be uncomfortable impaled on the ugly spikes. Thus, our forefathers reassured themselves.

Although Kingston's early children were superstitious, they made progress in democracy. The Dutch, the first to establish completely free education for their settlers, purchased the house and lot on the southwest corner of John and Crown Streets for a school.

Next, in 1773, on the triangle encompassed by Albany Avenue, Clinton Avenue and Maiden Lane, was built Kingston Academy, where Greek, Latin, mathematics, philosophy and history were taught. The reputation of this school extended beyond the Hudson Valley. Among the famous men who graduated from Kingston Academy was George Clinton, first governor of New York State.

Education is the basis of government, and thus Kingston was

MRS. WALTER G. ELLSWORTH

Millicent F. Hoffman, Walter G. Ellsworth United in Marriage at Amsterdam, June 14

United in marriage Sunday, June 14, at St. Ann's Episcopal Church, Amsterdam, were Miss Millicent Florence Hoffman and Walter George Ellsworth. The Rev. Harold W. Buckland, pastor of First Methodist Church, Amsterdam, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Hoffman of 40 McCleary Avenue, Amsterdam, and Mr. Ellsworth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ellsworth of Broadway Extension, Port Jervis.

Musical selections were played by Otto Miller Jr. Miss Catherine Zimmermann of New Paltz sang "O Perfect Love," "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Vases of white gladioli, carnations, peonies, and gypsophila decorated the altar. Family pews were marked with white satin rosettes.

also the cradle of New York's political development. The child emerged from the cradle as the first capital of New York State. The State Constitution was completed and officially proclaimed in the old court house on Wall Street. The first state Senate met in the Old Senate House at the corner of North Front Street and Clinton Avenue. With George Clinton at its head the state government organized in 1777. With admiration, we think of the courage, vision and sense of responsibility of those early citizens of the State of New York.

With such advancement, Kingston naturally attracted the attention of the cradle of cultural growth. John Vanderlyn, a native of Kingston, was pronounced to be the first painter in America by Aaron Burr. Influenced by Vanderlyn's portraits, Burr sent him to France to study. The portrait of the artist's mother, portrait of Jane Eliza Vaughn, the artist's niece, and portrait of Augustus Bruyn, local banker, are among those of his paintings owned by the Senate House Museum. Vanderlyn's best epitaph might be his own true words: "The main object of my life has been to acquire some eminence in my art, less in the hope to acquire fortune thereby than to reflect some credit on my country."

The spirit of the colonists and of the founders of a new state has been part of our heritage. This spirit has contributed to produce our Class of 1959. Backed by this spirit, we have already broken scholastic records while in high school. Maintaining the traditions of the cradle-world we inherited, the Class of 1959 steps forth into an adult world, with our right to enjoy happily as our duty, and to bequeath proudly as our legacy.

Ellsworth, of Port Jervis, brother of the bridegroom. A reception for 150 guests was held at the First Methodist Church, Amsterdam.

For the wedding trip to New Hampshire, the bride chose a white linen suit trimmed with pale gray lace. Upon their return the couple will live at Guilford Mountain Road, New Paltz. Mrs. Ellsworth is attending New Paltz State Teachers College where she is a member of Agonian Sorority. The bridegroom is a graduate of Cornell University where he was a member of Alpha Gamma Rho Fraternity. He is Dairy Herd Improvement Cooperative supervisor for Ulster County.

HONOR RETIRING PRINCIPAL AND TEACHER—Students of School 4 present gifts to R. H. Van Valkenburgh, retiring principal and Miss Winifred M. Sullivan, retiring first grade teacher, at final assembly program recently.

Awards Presented, Teachers Honored At School 4 Program

During the final assembly at School No. 4 Thursday morning, several prizes were awarded for meritorious work during the past year.

The Mathilda Stock Cordts memorial prize was secured by Sandra Parker for the highest scholastic average in the sixth grade. The Hutton Company's Good Citizenship prizes were awarded to Walter Brandt, Paul DeCicco, Carolyn Wolf, Nancy Lauci and Sandra Parker. A science award was given to Abraham VanSteenburgh and a spelling award to Barbara Howell. All of the pupils were finishing the sixth grade. Several good citizenship certificates were presented to pupils for their monitor services about the building during the year.

Forty-eight medals were distributed to the School 4 pupils who won events in the field day sponsored by the Cordts Hose Fire Company June 5. A performance of the ballet The Swan by Saint Siens was given by Lucille Samolowa.

Pupils of the school presented the retiring principal R. H. Van Valkenburgh and retiring first grade teacher, Miss Winifred M. Sullivan with gifts. The sixth grade presented their teacher Miss Isabel Moeslein with a bouquet of roses.

American Designer Loper Voices Opinions On Regal Dress and European Dressmakers

By EDDY GILMORE

LONDON (AP)—American dress designer Don Loper said today that Queen Elizabeth II is a well-dressed woman but dresses too much her age.

"It's probably not her fault," he added. "It's the fault of those who dress her. Why, at times, she looks 33."

A reporter said that Her Majesty was 33. "That's my point," he snapped. "Asked about Princess Margaret's clothes, Loper replied: 'The princess is not an easy one to dress, this is because of her size. Margaret is short with plenty of curves. Loper said he had deep sympathy for the royal ladies and their clothes. "Everyone's looking at them all the time and they look with a critical eye. "They're on (on stage) from the minute they wake until they go to bed. And don't forget—because of their great activities—standing around at ceremonies and walking through factories and such—they've got to be comfortable, too."

Here with four Hollywood models and what he claimed was a million dollars worth of dress, Loper has been invited to put on a show for tonight's glittering Anglo-American Ball.

Somebody asked how he thought Princess Grace Kelly of Monaco looks in her clothes.

"Her serene Highness looks dreadful now that those Paris dressmakers have got at her," he said.

"I used to make her look like a princess—now she looks like just plain Grace Kelly."

Asked if he didn't like French and Italian dressmakers, Loper and snorted: "Some of them are just a bunch of juvenile delinquents. It's taken me one certain young Frenchman several years to learn that a woman's bosom is in front."

WEDDING GIFTS OF MONEY

Dear Mrs. Post: Recently the daughter of a neighbor of mine was married and I was invited to the wedding and reception. Practically all of the guests with the exception of me and a very few others, gave the bride a cash gift. After the dinner, the guests presented their envelopes to the bride as they went up to wish her happiness. I have never seen this practice before and wondered if it were proper.

Answer: I have never seen this either, although I have heard that it is customary among some groups. Correctly, when money is given for a wedding present, it should be in the form of a check and sent to the bride beforehand.

Wearing Sneakers on the Campus

Dear Mrs. Post: I attend a large Catholic woman's college and the subject of proper footwear has arisen here. We are faced with the questions: Are sneakers exclusively for the gym and the tennis court or may they properly be worn informally about the campus? This question has evoked a good deal of discussion and we would appreciate your opinion on the matter.

Answer: Sneakers are for exercising and extremely informal wear and they should not be worn on the campus unless, because of local custom, the majority of the students do so now.

MRS. DANIEL J. PEISCHEL (Pennington photo)

Anna Jeanne McMonagle, Daniel J. Peischel Wed Before Nuptial Mass Saturday, June 20

Miss Anna Jeanne McMonagle and Daniel Joseph Peischel Jr. were married Saturday, June 20, 11 a. m., before a nuptial Mass at St. Peter's Church, Rosendale. The bride's uncle, the Rev. Howard M. McMonagle of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart, Jackson Heights, officiated at the double ceremony and read the Papal blessing for the couple. The altar was decorated by Sister Alma Regina, O.S.D., with white and yellow gladioli. Soloist was Mrs. James Sweeney who sang "Ave Maria," "Lord I Am Not Worthy" and "On This Day." James Sweeney was organist.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. McMonagle of Tillson, the bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of Chantilly hand clipped lace and tulle styled with a fitted bodice of lace and scalloped V neckline. The floor-length skirt was accented with pleated tulle with overskirt of Chantilly lace. She wore lace mitts and a queen crown of lace and sequins attached to a three-tier fingertip veil with scalloped edge. Her flowers were white roses and carnations.

Miss Adelaide McMonagle was maid of honor for her sister in a pastel yellow silk organza gown with fitted bodice over taffeta. Her bouffant harem skirt was trimmed with tiny satin bows.

Band Program Set At Highland School

Seventy-seven students have enrolled in the summer band program sponsored by the board of education of Highland Central school. Instruction will be given on the various band instruments for a period of seven weeks commencing June 29 and ending Aug. 14. Students enrolled in the program comprise the beginning groups, intermediate students and a senior band group for the more advanced students.

In addition to the daily lessons being given, a band rehearsal will be held each Monday evening at 7:15 in the band room for those students qualifying for senior band. Past band members in the community and others interested in performing in a summer band may join. The first rehearsal will be held June 29, at 7:15.

Nursery School Is Slated at Jewish Community Center

Registration for the Jewish Community Center Nursery School will be held on Tuesday, July 14, at the Jewish Community Center, 265 Wall Street, from 10 a. m. to 12 noon and from 1 p. m. to 3 p. m.

Nursery school will be completely redecorated and equipped, under the advisory supervision of Mrs. Dorothy Conklin of the State Education Department. A morning session for three and four year olds is definite, and there is a possibility of an afternoon class if enough interest is shown. Those interested should make definite arrangements soon, as 15 children are the maximum accepted in each class, to insure proper supervision and individual attention.

Interest in the education of young children is the prime motive for nursery school. A non-participating school is being offered for the following reasons: It allows the child to adjust to the teacher and teacher's aide; avoids the problem of younger offspring in the nursery school; and young children are more secure with regularity and balance in their day.

For further information Mrs. Merrill Stone or the Jewish Community Center may be contacted.

New Paltz Couple Feted on Anniversary

Couple Married In Olden Day Style

KEMMERER, Wyo. (AP)—In a setting reminiscent of 100 years ago, Judith Day Roudabaugh, 18, and Thomas A. Hollaman, 21, both of Drain, Ore., were married Tuesday in a circle of covered wagons.

The background was formed by prairie schooners of the Oregon Cavalcade, presently retracing the old Oregon Trail between Independence, Mo., and Independence, Or., in celebration of Oregon's centennial.

The ceremony, with the principals attired in pioneer clothes, took place at the Oregon Trail monument in Kemmerer's Triangle Park. The Rev. R. F. Meier, pastor of Kemmerer Methodist Church, officiated.

Signs for Liquor Sale

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Oklahoma has a new liquor law today and the new Alcoholic Beverage Control Board was to meet with Gov. J. Howard Edmondson to discuss means of setting up the machinery for legal sales. The governor signed the liquor control bill Tuesday. The bill specifies that legal sales should start no later than Sept. 1. The law provides for package sales only.

Gives Bandit Advice

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"Every time I do this I get sick inside," a young bandit explained to Irene Solomon. He and a companion robbed her of $67 in her home Tuesday.

"I have to do it to dress well," insisted the bandit, who wore a brown pork pie hat, an Ivy League dark gray suit, an olive green sports shirt, a yellow sweater and argyle socks.

"Why don't you go to a psychiatrist?" retorted Mrs. Solomon—whose husband is one.

Launching Postponed

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—An attempt to launch the Discoverer IV satellite rocket was postponed Tuesday because of technical problems in range communications. There was no indication when the shot will be re-scheduled, but past delays have invariably been for at least 48 hours.

Fist of Friendship

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Milkman Omer Zale, 24, was the friendly type. Every afternoon as he passed a certain Phoenix intersection he waved and shouted a greeting to a man working on a street project.

One afternoon the workman jumped into a truck and followed Zale. The milkman stopped his vehicle and stepped out to say a friendly word.

"What's the idea of always shouting at me?" asked the workman. Before Zale could reply, the workman let loose with a roundhouse right. It took seven stitches to close the wound on the milkman's head.

Why We Say--

"GET THE BRUSHOFF"

PULLMAN PORTERS: This expression started in the 1920's with Pullman porters who were said to give their best service to "high tippers," while other passengers would be dismissed at the end of a trip with just a quick brush-off with a whisk broom.

The Mature Parent

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Putting Bite on Visitors Seems Natural to Young

One weekend when Ted was about 3, he suddenly became aware of visitors.

His Uncle Bob arrived; and after greeting the grownups, sat down on the davenport in his overcoat. Feeling in its pockets, he said as though to himself, "Now what's all this stuff in here?"

Shrieking with delight, Ted's sister flung herself on Uncle Bob's right overcoat pocket and emerged with a toy watch, soap in the form of a black kitten, some peppermints and a little vial of perfume.

Ted started shrieking, too, because it seemed the thing to do. But when he discovered a whale for his bathtub in Uncle Bob's left pocket, he stopped yelling. As the pocket disgorged a whistle, his own bag of peppermints and a clockwork bus, he was too gratefully astonished to even say "Thank you." Right then and there, visitors and presents became mixed up in his mind.

So he's become something of a problem to his parents. Whenever a friend or relative comes to visit, Ted shouts with happy expectation, "What did you bring me?"

Many of the visitors resent this greeting. They want to be loved for themselves alone and feel uneasy when Ted demands presents from them, especially when they haven't brought him any. His Aunt Mable, for instance, is convinced that he's being trained to rudeness and materialism.

I think she's mistaken.

A child's "What did you bring me?" is his innocent certainty that all grownups love him and are interested in giving him pleasure.

Usually, like Uncle Bob, some visitor has demonstrated this interest so impressively that the child expects it from all subsequent visitors just as we expect water from faucets because the first one we ever turned on delivered it.

We need not use the word "rude" when we tell Ted that Aunt Mable is not Uncle Bob and feels unhappy when he yells "What did you bring me?"

As children grow, they may begin to welcome our friends and relatives for their beautiful souls. Right now they are fascinated by Uncle Bob's capacity to turn his coat pockets into a source of wonder and delight.

Can't Impress Jury

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—William S. Wunch, Ph.D. in mathematics, miscalculated the odds in a jury trial.

Wunch, 34, an associate professor in math and physics at Arizona State University, recently was fined $15 for driving 80 miles an hour in a 60-mile zone.

He appealed to Superior Court. Acting as his own counsel Wunch used a time-distance formula to show why he couldn't have been doing 80. The jury disagreed. Judge Renz L. Jennings did some quick figuring. His answer: a $50 fine.

SAUGERTIES NEWS

Miss Saugerties Crowning Highlights Thursday Event

The program for the Miss Saugerties coronation ball at The Flamingo Restaurant, 9W, Saugerties Thursday beginning at 9 p. m., was announced today by Mrs. Joan Feldman, pageant director.

The 11 items listed will culminate in the naming and crowning of Miss Saugerties of 1960. Moira Rose Altevogt of West Camp, Miss Saugerties of 1959 will crown the new queen.

Following the introduction of the five judges, the name of the second runner-up will be announced. Susan Harris, the second runner last year will make the trophy presentation.

Judy Kaminski, last year's first runner-up will present the gold loving cup to the new first runner-up.

The Saugerties Area Chamber of Commerce sponsored program will be opened by President Myron Banks, who will introduce the master of ceremonies, John Lynker.

Miss Altevogt will introduce the contestants as they make their entrance.

A talent show presented by the contestants will include 12 acts. Mrs. Feldmann will make the award presentation to the contestant who sold the most tickets to the ball.

Kay Moose, Miss Saugerties of 1957, also of West Camp, will present the gold loving cup to Miss Congeniality, chosen by secret ballot by the contestants at the pageant held Saturday at Sacks Lodge, Katsbaan.

In addition to a silver loving cup, the new Miss Saugerties will be awarded a weekend in Atlantic City, N. J., a set of luggage, an engraved sterling silver bracelet, a chaise longue and flowers for the occasion. In addition she will receive flowers for each public appearance through the courtesy of the Flower Garden, and the committee has arranged for a hair setting for each occasion at Joseph's Beauty Salon.

Following the program music for dancing will be played by Johnny Knapp and his orchestra.

The contestants are:

Audrey Beaudoin, Carol Benson, Mary Brice, Winnie Ganger, Paulette Chirola, Sheila Hughes, Rita Isabella, Rose Mary Mooney, Pennie Pettinger, Nancy Quackenbush, and Linda Wood, all of the village; Dorothy Flicker of Malden-on-Hudson; Lynda Gardner and Socorro Rodasado of Barclay Heights; Edeltraut Heidenmann of Glenelg; Mary Lamott, Nancy Misasi, and Theresa Spada of Glasco; Sally Lamouree of Blue Mountain; Carole Larsen of Fish Creek; Gaetana C. Pesce of Katsbaan; Jean Post of West Saugerties; Denise Reibier and Patricia Sasso of Flatbush; Dona Rowell of Saxton; Geraldine Spica of Quarryville, and Sharon Vaughn of Cedar Grove.

Powerboat Group Seeks Variance For Club Site

The Saugerties Powerboat Association in an application dated June 22 is seeking zoning variance on a new clubhouse site it has under contract to purchase. The public hearing before the Zoning Board will be held Thursday 8 p. m. in Saugerties Village clerk's office.

The land in the contract is the former Bogoson property which has about 300 feet of waterfront on Esoups Creek and about 300 feet on Ferry Street, opposite the present site across the creek on Lighthouse Drive.

According to Attorney Daniel N. Lamb, handling negotiations for the club, if variance is granted to permit use of the tract as a private boat club only, the association will make plans for relocation of its clubhouse across the creek.

The public notice indicates that the club seeks to have the classification of the village zoning ordinance on the property changed from residential to private boat club. The contract of sale is with the present owner Anita Moran.

Bathing Beach Opens Officially Friday Morning

The Municipal Bathing Beach will open officially Friday. The hours will be from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Lifeguards on duty will be William Thornton and Hannah McLennon.

Registration for swimming instructions at the beach will begin on opening day, it was announced by Village Clerk Ernest R. Ackert.

Applications are now available at the clerk's office in the municipal building, Partition Street. The applications must be signed and returned in person by the person seeking swimming instructions.

Registration will be scheduled for the following categories:

Beginners 10 to 11 a. m.; intermediates 11 to 12 noon; junior life saving 12 noon to 1 p. m.; senior life saving and adult swimming, both beginning and intermediate 6 to 7 p. m.

Instructors are Mrs. June Jasienowski and Mrs. Dwight Bail.

Beginners are those in the 7 to 16 age bracket who have not learned to swim. Intermediates are those who have passed a beginning course. Junior life saving includes those who passed the beginners course and are in the 12 to 15 age bracket, or in the seventh through 10th grade in school. Senior life saving includes those who are over 16 years of age, or are students above the 11th grade in school.

The life saving course requires a minimum of 15 hours. The first sessions will be on June 29. Certificates will be presented to those who complete and pass the course on July 24.

Title Fight Slated to Be Shown At Auditorium 10:30 P.M.

Jim Murray, who is promoting closed circuit television of Thursday night's heavyweight championship fight between Floyd Patterson and Ingemar Johansson, said the bout will start at 10:30 p. m. Murray said there are still plenty of good seats left for the Municipal Auditorium showing of the fight and he advises patrons to purchase their duets early to be assured of the best seats.

The Newburgh promoter said the closed circuit showing will start at 9 p. m. with several shorts on great fights. If the title bout is less than seven rounds, another fight will be shown on the giant screen. Kingston is the nearest city to New York where the boxing fans can see the action through a closed circuit showing.

Harness Writers To Get Yearling At Their Dinner

Walter Michael, President of the United States Trotting Association, today confirmed the fact he had worked out details with the United States Harness Writers' Association Inc. to have Pickwick Farms' yearling as a door prize at the Association dinner in the Hotel Commodore, New York City, Sunday night, Nov. 29.

In addition to being President of the USTA, Michael is also head of Pickwick Farms, Bucyrus, Ohio, one of the top standard bred nurseries in the country with such sires as Gene Abbe, Darn Flashy, Meadow Gold, Attorney, Widow Cyrus, Direct Way, Chief Long, Jerry the First, Time's Square and Famous Hanover.

The writers plan to give the yearling as a door prize at their annual function which promises to hit a new high of 1,000 people this year in the spacious 1,200 seat Commodore. It is the largest function of its kind in the sport and five major awards to drivers and charity are given at that time.

Picks Floyd

By Knockout

In 1st Round

By MURRAY ROSE

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Heavyweight Champion Floyd Patterson will knock out Sweden's Ingemar Johansson in the first round of an explosive, bloody battle at Yankee Stadium Thursday night.

This is the prediction of the writer after a study of the two fighters in their training camps, deep research of their careers, a look at a crystal ball and a consultation with a witch doctor. Johansson's only chance appears to rest with his "thunder and lightning" right hand. "Blood and thunder" is the way Edwin Ahlquist, Johansson's advisor, describes the mighty right and Ingemar, himself, appears to agree. Ingo has kept the mighty right under wraps in training. There's not much question that he has the power in that fist, as evidence by his first-round knockout of Eddie Machen, then the No. 1 contender, at Goteborg, Sweden, last Sept. 14, and his fifth-round kayo of Britain's Henry Cooper at Stockholm, May 19, 1957.

Both Machen and Cooper, however, are standup fighters. Both box in the classic style Johansson is accustomed to. Neither does much body punching. Johansson, too, is a standup fighter who operates with an orthodox left jab and follows with straight right hands. In training, however, Ingo has shown nothing. He floundered like an amateur when he was pressed.

Completely Different Patterson is completely different in his mode of fighting. The lithe, pantherish champion fights out of a crouch. He bobs and weaves, holding both gloves in front of his face in a peek-a-boo style. His left arm is tucked in, his right forearm protects his body. Floyd moves quickly from side to side. Once in a while he shifts to a left-handed stance. He is hard to hit squarely. True, he has been knocked down in title fights by Pete Rademacher and Roy Harris. But he got up quickly and fired away faster.

Floyd still leaps in with his gazelle right — a punch thrown while he springs into the air with a catlike motion. But most important of all is his devastating combinations, especially to the body. The 24-year-old champion lets loose with hooking flurries of 10 to 12 punches at times. Those blurring-fast combinations to the body — something Ingo never has had to cope with — will be his undoing.

This observer believes Patterson will move right in on the unbeaten European champion seconds after the opening bell. He probably will bang away at the body to bring down Johansson's hands and then shoot for the head. He may get nailed in this all-out assault.

If he does, and goes down, the story could be different. I think Patterson will be too close to his opponent to get hit by such a punishing blow. With predictions of fair weather for Thursday night, the gate may even hit the $700,000 mark. Receipts from closed circuit TV, movies and radio may add an additional 14 million dollars to the gate.

Patterson still held as a 34-1 favorite to win, and a 2-1 choice to score a knockout. It was 6-1 that Johansson would not knock out the champion.

63 of 69 Pick

Paterson to Win

NEW YORK (AP) — Heavyweight Champion Floyd Patterson is picked to turn back the challenge of Ingemar Johansson Thursday by 63 of 69 boxing writers including four of seven Swedish newsmen. Guesses on Patterson's victory round ran all the way from the first to the 15th. The eighth was the most popular with 11 votes.

Pitching — Milt Pappas, Orioles, struck out four, walked but one and gave up just five hits for 5-1 victory over first place Indians.

Hitting — Del Crandall, Braves, drove in four runs with a double and homer for 9-5 victory over the Cardinals.

Chappie's, Gallo's, Dew Drop Inn Get Victories in Rec Softball Loop

Bud O'Dea twirled a nifty six hit shutout last night in a Rec Softball League game as Chappie's Taxi won a 7-0 decision from Hill Top Inn.

In other league tilts, Gallo's nipped Hercules, 7-4, and Dew Drop Inn pounded out a 15-8 win over the 35 Club in a slugfest.

Johnny Burris homered to give O'Dea a working margin and he took over from there. Bud struck out four batters and did issue a walk. Andy Juhl tripled for the winners and Burris and Bernie Schlanger rapped doubles. A five run seventh inning gave O'Dea some breathing room.

Gallo's won its 10th win in 11 starts with a flurry of five runs in the fifth frame. Stan Leeco was the winning hurler, spacing four hits. Joe Amato had the only extra base blows, two doubles. John Costello lost the contest.

Base hits came easy in the Dew Drop-35 Club game with a total of 31 safeties being socked, 21 by the winners. V. Hart and J. Chobor had home runs and Richards, E. Silling and A. Short walked triples. The winners scored six runs in the opening round and then coasted. The box scores:

Williamsport Loses, 2-0

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

For the second time this season, Jim Myers, Springfield pitcher, has shut out Williamsport, the Eastern League leaders. He did it 2-0 Tuesday night in the second game of a doubleheader, despite the fact that his teammates got only four hits while Myers gave up six.

The seesaw race between Allentown and Williamsport for first place remained unchanged, however. The Grays took the first game 7-4 while Allentown split a doubleheader with York, winning the nightcap 7-4 but losing the opener 4-0.

Reading licked Lancaster 5-3 and Albany beat Binghamton for the first time this season 4-2. Harold Dietz, (2-0) ended York's five-game losing streak by shutting out Allentown in the opener on five hits.

Albany scored all its runs in the first two innings as righthander Evans Killeen (3-3) pitched a seven-hitter.

Lancaster and Reading each collected nine hits and Lancaster got off to an early lead on Denny Loudenback's homer.

Ted Williams Starts to Hit Pirates Stay Close to Braves

Homer, Single Lead Red Sox Over Detroit

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Ted Williams has made Briggs Stadium his favorite ballyard since he burst into the American League in 1939.

A 40-year-old Williams, back in the line-up after being benched for weak hitting for the first time in his career, says "don't count me out" following a single and home run in three at-bats Tuesday night as Boston rapped Detroit 10-4.

It was only the fourth time this season that Williams, who upped his average 13 points to .202, has managed two hits in one game—and it was his first game in Briggs Stadium this year.

That loss, their fifth in seven games, plunked the Tigers to 10th place. The New York Yankees took 14th, belting Kansas City again, 10-2, and moving within two games of first place. Cleveland, 10th, beat the Indians 5-1 to Baltimore. Hahn, 1b, scored two runs in the ninth with his 14th. All three were off reliever Dave Siser, the ex-Red Sox right-hander.

Ike Delock, (6-4) was the winner with a five-hitter. Paul Foytack (5-7) was the loser, giving up four runs and three of Boston's 13 hits in the first inning.

Pappas Winner

Young Milt Pappas (7-3), winning three of his last four decisions, handed the Indians their fourth defeat in six games with a five-hitter. The third place Orioles had 10 hits, beating Gary Bell (6-7) with two runs in the third on a pair of walks and two-out singles by Bob Nieman and Gus Triandos.

Early Wynn (10-5) became the AL's top winner with his 25th career victory. He got it with an eight-hit, seven-strikeout job backed up by Sherm Lollar's two-run homer, his eighth, and a pair of two-out hits from Earl Torgeson.

Mantle Gets 18th

The Yankees, shrugging off Sunday's double defeat by Cleveland, made it seven out of nine with an 18-hit barrage that included three two-run homers—by Mickey Mantle (18), Hank Bauer (4) and Gil McDougald (2). Southpaw Whitey Ford (7-4), who sprained an ankle in his last start, was the winner with a five-hitter.

'Team Can Win,' Alston Remarks About Los Angeles

By CHARLES MAHER

Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Walter Alston, a fellow who might hesitate to predict next Easter will fall on a Sunday, is now prepared to say his Los Angeles Dodgers could win the National League pennant.

The quiet, cautious man from Ohio hasn't reached the point where he's worried about what pitching rotation he might use in the World Series. But, after the Dodgers moved to within a game of second place Tuesday night by beating Philadelphia 4-3, Alston volunteered these remarks:

"If Gil Hodges and Duke Snider keep on hitting, we've got a chance. That is, if the pitching holds out. Now, I don't want it to sound as though I'm pinning it all on one or two men. We'd need help from the others too. It's gotta be a team effort—all the way down to the batboy almost."

"But when Hodges is hitting, it certainly makes a difference."

Snider Hitting "I know Snider's got to be rested once in a while (because of a knee injury) but he's hitting over .300 and he's hitting with power. Alston readily acknowledged other things have helped make the team look considerably different from last year. One he finished seventh with last year."

Wally Moon, for example, has a 16-game hitting streak going. He is batting .333. Jim Gilliam, who has reached base 12 times in his last 17 at bats, is hitting .326. And Don Demeter has 14 homers, 50 RBI.

Hodges, however, probably figures in the change as much as anyone. He has hit safely in his last eight games, raising his average to .298. He has 42 RBI — 12 in his last nine games.

Gil gained additional stature among the game's power hitters when he hit his 11th homer of the season Tuesday night. It was his 331st in the majors and it moved him into a tie with Hank Greenberg for 11th place among all-time home run leaders.

McGowan Fires One-Hit Triumph

A single by John Thompson in the fifth inning spoiled a no-hit bid by Frank McGowan of the Firemen as his teammates walloped the Lions, 9-0, in an American Little League contest last night. It was the only hit off McGowan who walked five and struck out seven.

The winners scored twice in the first and third frames and capped their successful night with a five run fourth.

Ken Heppner, Mike Bush, Joe Amendola had two base hits and McGowan helped his cause with a triple. Bob Bruhn took the brunt of the assault and he was charged with the loss.

Indians Split Two Contests

John Tremper had a perfect 5-5 day as the Indians scalped the Giants, 24-4, in an Exopus Legion fracas. Two of Tremper's safeties were for the distance.

In another league tilt, the Yankees scored four third inning runs and beat the Indians, 5-4. Bill Ferguson hit a homer for the losers but it wasn't enough.

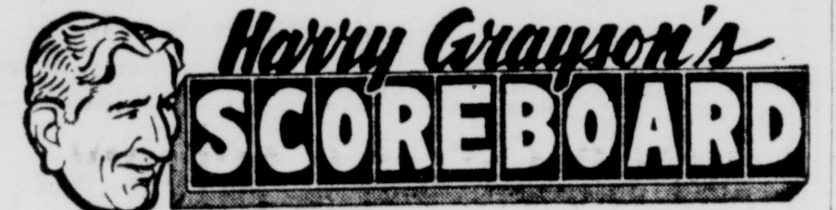

Ferguson also had a roundtripper in his team's big win over the Giants. He had three hits. Skip Lanigan, the winning hurler, and Ed Galbreth also socked for the distance as the Tribe batters collected 21 hits.

They only managed five against the Yankees. John Mitchell and Ray Wells doubled for the winners and Walt Lanigan had a two base blast for the Indians. Dave Duffy won it and Galbreth was the loser.

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK — (NEA) — William Eli Miller has been around prize fighters for more than 40 years, or since he was a sports editor in Manila. As the agent of Frank Churchill, he managed great Filipino fighters, headed by Pancho Villa.

Reminding that betting odds don't decide a fight, Bill Miller wrote this department expressing astonishment at Ingemar Johansson being sold so cheaply in his match with Floyd Patterson at Yankee Stadium.

"Word came to me from Las Vegas, the dry-cleaning capital of the world, that Patterson was favored at 4-to-1," he said. "It made me think of you. To titillate your memory, Jack Dempsey met an erudite marine named Gene Tunney in Philadelphia 33 years ago. The price that night was identical 4-to-1.

"Dempsey was the overwhelming favorite. In fact, the odds did not properly reflect the feeling of the vast majority of fans around the country. Writers called Tunney the Greenwich Village Folly, doubted that he would show up.

"DISCERNING GENTS WHO opined that Tunney would win could be counted on the fingers and you were one.

"In Chicago, where I was headquartering at the time, a newspaperman made the rounds of the gymnasiums (they had them in those days), bookie joints, etc. He interviewed 88 hombres, as I remember. Of these, 84 picked Dempsey.

"Only four tabbed Tunney. They were Jim Mullen, the promoter; Nate Lewis, the veteran manager called the Bald Eagle of the Loop; Dave Barry, destined to referee the return match one year later; and (blush-blush) your boy friend, William Eli Miller. I went a step farther, wagering $75 against $300. I had money in those days. You'll remember that I was Frank Churchill's right-hand bower, got first count on the dough.

"Long before that, down in N'Yawlins, Sept. 7, 1892, John L. Sullivan, who could lick anyone in the house, was 4-to-1 over James J. Corbett. A cub reporter named Theodore Dreiser interviewed Sullivan before the fight. One of the few printable terms he applied to Corbett was, 'That skinny dude from California.'

"IT SEEMS A COINCIDENCE that the 4-to-1 underdogs in these three heavyweight championship fights were white collar guys. Corbett was a bank clerk, Tunney a shipping clerk, Johansson runs a heavy contracting business and a fishing boat from offices.

"Critics criticized Johansson for dancing. Well Sugar Ray Robinson danced professionally before making his comeback, and I don't recall that it hurt him a whit.

"Those sloughing Johansson forgot that many things can happen in a fight. My mind goes back to the summer of 1925, when a heavyweight referee, Gunboat Smith, stepped on the ankle of Stanislaus Loayza in the second round of his fight with Jimmy Goodrich. It was the final match of the lightweight elimination tournament which followed Benny Leonard's retirement. The ankle was busted. Loayza was unable to continue. Goodrich, who scored a total of six knockouts in 110 fights, was declared the winner by a technical KO.

"THINGS LIKE THAT MAKE me take a mild flier now and then when the odds are 4-to-1.

"Remember when Max Baer was 10-to-1 over Jim Braddock, George Chip 50-to-1 over Al McCoy and Ezzard Charles 6-to-1 over Jersey Joe Walcott in their third fight in Pittsburgh? I could go on and on in this vein, but I see the dirty look you are tossing this way.

"Prediction? No, but I always respect the guy who has the puncher's chance, and those who didn't believe Ingemar Johansson belonged in that category could have asked Eddie Machen and a dozen other blokes."

Kramer Hoping To Get Buchholz

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—Pro tennis czar Jack Kramer today called temperamental teen-ager Earl Buchholz of St. Louis the "greatest tennis talent" in the amateur ranks "and I can hardly wait to get him."

This was Kramer's answer to Buchholz statement that "I can hardly wait to turn professional" after his first-round upset of Italy's Nicola Pietrangeli at Wimbledon.

"Of all the amateurs around, Buchholz has the most talent,"

Fullmer, Basilio To Meet Aug. 28

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Gene Fullmer will fight Carmen Basilio for the National Boxing Assn. middleweight championship at the San Francisco Cow Palace Aug. 28, the Salt Lake Tribune said Tuesday night. Sports Editor John Mooney said the announcement of the site and date would be made in New York Friday morning.

Kramer said, "More than Alex Olmedo, more than any of them. And don't worry about his temperament. It'll change when he turns pro. They all do."

Ulster LL Passes Rule Requiring All Boys to Play

Town of Ulster Little League coaches, managers and umpires had a special meeting last night and passed an important resolution which will require each boy on every team in the league to play at least two innings a week.

All of the managers, with the exception of one, voted for the resolution. It was brought about after a game last week when one team won by a 31-3 score with nine players taking part for the winning club. The manager did not use a substitute.

Vice President Nick Valenzuela presided at last night's meeting. A new umpire-in-chief, Clifton Quick, was appointed. He succeeds Herbert Herdman.

Lions Club Wins Thriller, 7-5

Jim Ostrander walloped a home run in the eighth inning to drive in his fourth and fifth runs of the night as the Lions Club won its fifth straight game in the Rondout Valley Babe Ruth League, 7-5, over Mollenhauers.

Terry Confer hurled a sparkling two hitter for the Lions and he fanned 18 batters in the process. Arnie Smith was the starter for the losers. He had surrendered only one hit until the sixth when the winners pushed across four runs. Relief chucker Floyd Turner took the loss.

Turner had a triple for Mollenhauers and Temple and Ostrander socked doubles.

Iroquois Defeat Apaches, 12-3

Taking advantage of 12 walks, the Iroquois topped the Apaches, 12-3, in a Metropolitan Knothole Baseball game yesterday at Metropolitan Park. The winners had nine hits to aid in their run producing.

Robert Warhola was the winner. He helped his cause with a pair of doubles and three runs scored. John Dickerson and Larry Clearwater also rapped two base hits.

City Recreation Sets Parks Movie Schedule

Kingston Recreation Department's first movie of the 1959 summer program will be shown
Wednesday evening, July 24 in Block Park starting at dusk.
The kick-off movie for the summer program will be "Battle Stations" featuring John Lund,
William Bendix and Richard Boone. All City Parks will officially open under the supervision Monday, June 29, and will remain under supervision for a eight week period. Movies will be shown in the various parks
Monday through Wednesday evenings at dusk starting Monday with an alternating system being used so that each part of the city will receive a film at least once every two weeks.

Flood Control
Delay Protested

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — "Tell Representative Pillion to just be patient," says Roy T. Herrick. "Those muddy boots ought to start pouring into his office any day now."

Herrick is a spokesman for residents in South Buffalo who are protesting to Rep. John R. Pillion (R-NY) against what they call inaction on a flood control project.

The muddy-boots campaign is intended to drive home their point. Herrick says more than 100 pair of boots have been sent. And there are probably two dozen more we didn't verify.

Up until Tuesday night, however, only two boots had been received in Pillion's office in Washington.

"What a break," said a secretary. "Just one pair, thank goodness."

Herrick said Tuesday night, "I don't understand why more boots haven't arrived yet."

"We checked the neighborhood," he said, "and verified that 85 pair of boots have been sent. And there are probably two dozen more we didn't verify."

Herrick said Pillion could keep the boots or, if he thought someone else was responsible for the inaction, pass them along to that person.

The stream that's causing all the trouble is Cazenovia Creek, which overflowed its banks last spring and flooded several blocks.

LEGAL NOTICES

INVITATION TO BIDDERS

Sealed proposals will be received by the Commissioners of the Board of Public Works of the City of Kingston, N. Y., at its office in the City Hall, 409 Broadway, Kingston, N. Y., until 1:00 p. m. on July 8, 1959, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read.

Proposals are invited on Contract No. 56 for a retaining wall on East Union Street from Hasbrouck Avenue easterly, on which contract the approximate quantities of items for the comparison of bids are as follows:

I 400 Cu. Yds. concrete retaining wall complete with retaining forcement.
II 400 Cu. Yds. unclassified excavation.
III 160 Cu. Yds. rock excavation.

IV 300 Lbs. Ft. line drilling.
V 75 Cu. Yds. select stone backfill behind wall.
VI 400 Cu. Yds. select wall backfill compacted.

VII 450 Sq. Yds. asphaltic concrete paving.
VIII 189 Lbs. Ft. 1½" round shear bars embedded in rock and concrete.

Proposals must be submitted on forms furnished by the Board of Public Works. These forms, together with other contract documents, including plan and specifications, may be obtained from the Department of Engineering, A. E. Hallinan, Chief Engineer, City Hall, upon the deposit of $10.00, which will be refunded upon the return of the documents in good order within ten (10) days after the opening of bids. Contractors who do not submit proposals will be refunded $5.00 upon the return of the documents above. These documents will be returned upon the receipt of the above office of the Department of Engineering.

Each proposal must be accompanied by a certified check in the amount of ten percent (10%) of the total amount bid, which will be returnable upon the acceptance of bid or the execution of the contract. No bids may be withdrawn after the date set for the opening of bids.

The commissioners expressly reserve the right to waive any bid, or to reject any or all bids, or to award the contract to any bidder at the discretion of the Board of Public Works of the City of Kingston, New York.

Lutheran Church
Lists Services
And Sermon Topic

The first epistle of Peter, chapter 3:8-15, forms the basis for the sermon the Rev. G. Oliver Sands plans to preach in Christ Lutheran Church, Woodstock, at 11 a. m. Sunday. His subject is "Getting Along Together." As St. Paul says, "Be ye all like-minded," we feel he means we in the church should all have the welfare of our beloved church and the spirit of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ if we wish the church in our midst to grow and prosper.

Sunday school sessions are held at 9:45 a. m., as usual all summer. All are welcome. Thursday, 7 p. m., the youth choir rehearses; at 7:45 p. m. the senior choir, Mrs. Albert Hauser of Springfield, Mass., guest of Miss Florence Peper, was guest soloist last Sunday. Monday, the Luther League meets at the home of Miss Carol De Witt at 7 p. m. Out-of-doors games will be played after which Michael Mayer will conduct devotions on the topic, "How Do You Give to Your Church?"

Holy Communion will be administered at the 11 a. m. Sunday worship service. The sermon title will be "Salvation." Nursery facilities are provided. All are welcome.

Sealed bids for Contract "N", the Hudson River Intake in the Highland Water District, will be received by the Town Board of the Town of Lloyd at the Town Clerk's Office until 8:00 P. M. D. S. T. on July 7, 1959, and then at the office publicly opened and read aloud.

The information for Bidders, Form of Bid, Form of Contract, Plans, Specifications and Form of Bid Bond and Performance Bond may be examined at the office of the Town Clerk of the Town of Lloyd, Albany, N. Y., and at the office of the Engineer and Architect, Professional Engineer, 41 Pearl Street, Kingston, N. Y., and copies thereof obtained upon the payment of $10.00 for each set. Any bidder, upon returning such set promptly and in good condition, will be refunded his payment, and any non-bidder, upon so returning such set will be refunded $5.00.

The Town Board reserves the right to waive any informality in or to reject any and all bids. Each bidder must deposit with his bid, security in an amount of not less than five per centum (5%) of the base bid in the form and subject to the conditions provided in the information for bidders.

Attention is also directed to the fact that the contractor will be governed by Section 220 of the Labor Law as amended, relating to hours of labor and prevailing rate of wage, also schedule of minimum wages to be paid to laborers and mechanics as designated by the Industrial Commissioner to be paid to laborers employed in the performance of the contract either by the contractor or sub-contractor, also 220A and 220B of the Labor Law as amended in relation to the payment of wages earned by employees upon public works.

No bidder may withdraw his bid within fifteen (15) days after the actual date of the opening thereof.

Urge Veterans To Secure, Check Vital Documents

New York State veterans were urged today by Charles L. Culver, counselor of the New York State Division of Veterans Affairs, and Howard C. Shurtler, director of the Ulster County Veterans Service Agency, to procure and place in safekeeping certified copies of documents recording the major events in their lives as well as those in the lives of their spouses.

"We do not feel we can urge this too strongly, nor stress it too often," said the veterans officials. "Certified copies of birth, marriage, divorce, annulment, death, birth and death of children are typical of vitally important records required when filing for benefits."

"Many veterans and their dependents have suffered unnecessary loss and inconvenience through neglect of this important detail," they continued. "These records are a 'must' if the veteran wishes to save himself or his dependents time, effort, and later delay and perhaps hardship."

Many cases are on record of a widow's claim being denied pending clarification of her marital status due to the veterans' having failed to procure and maintain clear record of the death of a previous spouse or a divorce or other form of dissolution of marriage.

Veterans who have any doubt as to the validity of acceptability of their records, or who have failed to obtain these vital documents, should contact the State Division of Veterans Affairs and the Ulster County Veterans Service Agency office at 32 Main Street, Kingston for assistance in obtaining the necessary certified copies and the establishment of a clear, unobstructed record.

Lightning Hits

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — The American Insurance Co. and June 23 apparently have had a falling out.

On June 23, 1958, a power line at the building was struck by lightning. When the air conditioning system was turned on a fire started and fritzed the machinery for 10 days.

Tuesday another bolt came from the blue, hit the same power line and caused the same kind of fire when the air conditioning system was turned on.

The machinery will be out of commission for 10 days.

$770,000 Painting

LONDON (AP)—A London art dealer today bought the Rubens masterpiece "Adoration of the Magi" for the highest price ever bid, at a public auction—$770,000. The painting was part of the collection of the late Duke of Westminster which went on sale at Sotheby's today to help pay inheritance taxes.

Blind Workers Produce More Equipment in Shop

By BARRY SCHWEID

ALBERTSON, N.Y. (AP)—Henry Viscardi Jr. is unlike any other boss. He won't hire a healthy worker.

Within the walls of his factory on Long Island the legless, the armless and the blind produce more than two million dollars worth of electronic equipment a year, Viscardi said in an interview.

Now persons who were mentally disturbed are coming to work. An armless, legless man is a foreman in the packaging department. Another supervisor works flat on his back from a litter. His back and legs are fused as a result of spinal injuries.

Viscardi has known of afflictions since birth. He was born with two short stumps where legs should have been.

In 1947, aged 35, Viscardi quit his job as director of personnel for a large textile firm to devote his time to a new idea in rehabilitation.

Five years later, four crippled persons began Abilities, Inc., in a garage.

Pneumonia Silences Musician's Trumpet

SPOLETO, Italy (AP) — Louis Armstrong, his silvery trumpet silenced by a pneumonia attack, was reported much improved today after resting well through the night.

One of the great jazz musician's doctors said he expects his patient to leave the hospital in a few days.

Armstrong, who will be 59 on July 4, was stricken early Tuesday. Doctors first thought he had a heart attack because he complained of chest pains.

Quadruplets Born

NEW YORK (AP)—Quadruplets—three boys and a girl—were born today to a 26-year-old Brooklyn woman in the Public Health Service Hospital at Clifton, Staten Island.

The children are the first for Alex, 30, and Besse Kajouras. The father is a truck driver by day and is studying law at Columbia University at night.

Today, 421 employees labor in a brand-new plant, soon to be accompanied by a new gymnasium, swimming pool and facilities for music societies, adult education, a camera club and arts and crafts.

Viscardi is married and has four daughters, the oldest 11 and the youngest 3.

His cheerful outlook becomes even surlier when he discusses the plant's safety record. There have been two reportable injuries in six years, a far safer situation than the national average, he says.

Recently Abilities, Inc., began hiring persons discharged from mental institutions. Already employed were paraplegics, epileptics, cardiacs, amputees, the blind, deaf mutes and victims of cerebral palsy, rheumatoid arthritis, multiple sclerosis, polio and cancer.

Seriously disabled, from floor-sweeper up to the boss, the men and women at Abilities, Inc., work for wages comparable to other firms of its size and get their jobs done on schedule—without rejects, Viscardi says.

When writing, a taxpayer should state his or her name and address exactly as it appears on his or her return, O'Hara said. "Your social security number and the amount of the refund also will be helpful," he said. "Of course, don't forget to give us your new address."

Shokan

SHOKAN — Mrs. Frank Cousen, Staten Island, who has a number of friends in Olive and Shandaken was here Monday. She is spending a vacation of three weeks in the Mt. Tremper area.

The Rev. Richard Coons and wife are again at their village center home after having been in Florida since early last fall. Mrs. Coons, formerly an instructor in the Saugerties school system, has been teaching at Penney Farms where Dominic Coons conducted a Bible class.

William Cole, Highland resident who went to school in the old village of Shokan in days before the waterworks, was a Shokan caller Sunday. Formerly a farmer at Modena, he is a brother of Mrs. John G. Woolsey of Kingston. He reports that a younger brother, Harry Cole, has died since leaving Shokan. Another brother, Clifford, now makes his home in Newark, N. J.

George Meister of Chichester has employment at the Haver Garage.

The Harold Corwins, summer residents of the church hill neighborhood, are having a deep well driven at their place.

Mrs. Albert Davis, the former Carol Gridley of Shady, and son were numbered among West Hurley people calling here recently.

Delaware County residents in town Sunday included Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Johnson, Kelly Corners. The couple, who keep about 35 cows on their dairy farm, are related to the William Constables and other Kingston residents.

Mrs. Patrick Kelly and three daughters, Inwood, L. I., are at their place near the old state road for the summer season.

Joshua Bell, 79, who has been keeping pretty close to home since early winter, has resumed his daily walks to the corner store. One of Shokan's best informed citizens on current world affairs, he is also a walking encyclopedia of local people and happenings in the "Gay Nineties" and early 1900's. He is also well acquainted with the Whiteport area where he operated a farm for several years.

Denmark's only land neighbor is Germany.

1,500 Taxpayers Sought to Give $115,008 Refund

The U. S. Internal Revenue Service is looking for 1,500 taxpayers in Albany District with some good news for them.

Uncle Sam, in the form of the Albany District of Internal Revenue Service, has $115,008.63 which rightfully belongs to Albany District taxpayers.

Checks Left Over

These are checks left over from the recent filing period. The checks, ranging from $2 to $400, have been returned in the mail for lack of proper address, change in names, such as recent marriage, and for other reasons.

James A. O'Hara, director of the Albany District, announced the figures today.

Director O'Hara is asking taxpayers to do themselves and his office a favor.

"If you are entitled to a refund check on the tax return you filed this year and have not yet received it, or if you have not received a letter from the revenue service advising you that your return is being examined, then write me at 161 Washington Avenue, Albany 1.

State Name, Address

When writing, a taxpayer should state his or her name and address exactly as it appears on his or her return, O'Hara said. "Your social security number and the amount of the refund also will be helpful," he said. "Of course, don't forget to give us your new address."

Airliner Returns

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A New York-bound jet airliner with 107 passengers aboard was forced to return to Los Angeles International Airport Tuesday night because of a bomb scare.

A ticket agent said a woman phoned moments after the liner took off and warned him that her husband had placed an incendiary bomb "in the body of the plane." The TWA jet was ordered back to the field. Nothing was found.

200,000 Homeless After China Flood

TOKYO (AP) — Flood waters converged today on the South China metropolis of Canton. The floods in Kwangtung province already had caused the death of at least 187 persons and made 200,000 homeless.

Flood crests of the North and West rivers were expected to strike Canton—a city of a million and a half people—with devastating force sometime today, Peiping news reports said.

The danger was heightened by new torrential rains which lashed the North River Tuesday. Two million men worked with picks, shovels, bales and sandbags to save Canton.

... for those who are going forward.
